Pastor's Corner

Dear Brothers and Sisters,
Our pilgrimage to Mexico was beyond my expectations. Before we left, I thought only five days? Well, in our three touring days we visited the Shrine of our Lady of Guadalupe, the Cathedral, the Dominican church in Mexico City, and a hand full of other Churches. There was enough gold leaf in the churches to make a forest. On the secular side, we visited the main government square, two volcanoes, the canal system via pontoons, the pyramids of the moon and sun, and the palace of fine arts to see beautiful traditional, and some silly, modern dancing. We are going to include some pictures in next week's bulletin showing our adventures.

I wore my habit the entire time, so all I needed was packed in a single backpack over the shoulder and my computer bag. When I was approaching the customs agent at SFO, he asked me where my luggage was. I pointed to my backpack and flippantly said, "It was a long day of travel, it is all right here". I could see him trying to read me to determine what to do with a guy coming back into the country carrying almost no luggage. After another look over and a slight lip bite, he waived me on and said, "Have a great day sir."
God bless you,
Fr. Jerome

Good News Reflection

How to open the door of love with mercy.
Mercy is the key to understanding this Sunday's Gospel reading. Think of love as the front door to people's hearts. When they close it, mercy is the love that sneaks in through the back door.

In ancient times, if someone gouged another person in the eye, the victim could gather his clan and punish him by wiping out his aggressor's clan. So God gave his people a law that brought them closer to love: If someone hurts your eye, you may do nothing more than the same to him. It was still unloving, but at least it was fair. When Jesus came onto the scene, he raised the standards: If someone hurts you, don't play fair; give that person love. When people sin against us, they don't understand that they're closing their hearts to God and his love. But if we give them love, we give them God through a back door. This does not mean we are to remain in harm's way. But if we continue to give them love -- even if only from afar -- we bring God and his healing into the situation.

If someone steals from you or demands something from you unjustly, you can't stop his greed but you can stop him from sinning against you: Let it go, give it to him. And as an act of generous love, give him more! I know it doesn't feel right, but this is what Jesus says is right. Divinely right. If someone asks you to do a chore for her because she's lazy, prevent it from becoming a sin of cruelty; gladly do what she asks and volunteer to do more. This plan of Jesus demonstrates, through us, that God's love is superior to everything else. It proves that love conquers evil. This is what it means to be perfect. Perfection in the Bible means the fullness of love -- complete, unlimited, merciful love.

Questions for Personal Reflection:
Think of a time when God showed you mercy even though you didn't deserve his love. What did it feel like when he gave you his love anyway? How did it change you? Who is currently sinning against you? What good deeds can you do simply and easily even before he or she asks for forgiveness?

Questions for Community Faith Sharing:
Describe a time when you did a good deed to someone who caused you difficulties. What kind of impact did your efforts make? If you're not aware of good results yet, how did it help you experience God's love? How can stopping an abuse be done as an act of love?
