Pastor's Corner

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

On Tuesday, I am heading home for a week to see my family. While home, I will be attending Francis' second birthday party. If you do not know, Francis is the name my mother gave her kidney. At her last check up, the doctor said all the numbers for Francis were off the charts, in a positive way. God is good!

The party is also going to be a little "family" reunion. The first eight years of my life we lived in Queens, New York and our neighborhood was full of FBI, Foreign Born Irish. All the adults were born in Ireland but the children were all US born. In fact, my parents said we all had Irish accents until we went to school and started to mix with the locals. I am excited to see people I have not seen in 30 years. However, I am not too crazy about the weather forecast for rain for seven of the eight days I will be there. At least I can take a long shower without feeling guilty.

While away Fr. Gregory Tatum will be assisting Frs. David and Vincent, and our new priest, Fr. Brad Elliot, is scheduled to arrive on the 21st to get to work!

God bless,
Fr. Jerome

Thank you to all the parishioners that came out to my potluck dinner. Thank you for all of the cards, gifts, food and time we shared that evening.
God Bless you all,
Fr. David
