With the birth of Jesus Christ, the Holy Family begins. To celebrate this divine reality, we gather with our families and friends to remember what is truly important, our faith in God and the gift we are to each other. We welcome our student's home from college, extended family members from out of town and, perhaps, even first time visitors to St. Dominic's Church.

Over our Christmas liturgies, the Church gives us three Gospels to contemplate. Our Vigil Mass' Gospel details St. Matthew's genealogy. This genealogy ends, "Thus the total number of generations from Abraham to David is fourteen generations; from David to the Babylonian exile, fourteen generations; from the Babylonian exile to the Christ, fourteen generations." The Gospel asks us to start our journey in the desert with Abraham, our father in faith, contemplate the power and majesty of being descendants of the greatest King of Israel, David, and enter into the sorrow and pain of our ancestors held captive in a foreign land. Then we also are asked to long for the Christ, the Messiah who is to come.

At the Midnight Mass, an angel of God reveals to the shepherds the Messiah has come when it declares, "For today in the city of David a savior has been born for you who is Christ and Lord." A savior has come in the line of King David to restore the Kingdom of God. This kingdom is to be eternal and because the savior is the Lord, our God.

Christmas morning's Mass reveals to us the Word of God, which was with God from the beginning, through which all creation came to be, and is God whom has come to the earth. This new relationship with God starts at Christmas with the birth of Jesus Christ because, "From His [Jesus'] fullness we have all received, grace in place of grace, because while the law was given through Moses, grace and truth came through Jesus Christ."

This Christmas please take some time to contemplate the reality of our relationship with God. Allow yourself some time to enter into the eternal plan of our salvation. Spend some time with our Lord Jesus Christ reading the Gospels, in prayer before the Blessed Sacrament and in communal prayer at Mass. Of course, we enjoy all the beautiful traditions that surround Christmas but take some time to refocus this Season on Jesus Christ and what He means in your life.

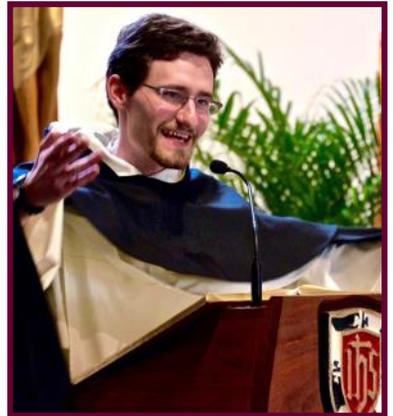

If you have been away from the Church and have questions, please know I am always available to speak with you. Also, please consider attending our Catholics Returning Home series, which begins on Tuesday, January 8th at 7:00 pm.

Thanks to your generous support, our parish's Saint Vincent de Paul Society was able to make the Christmas season bright for those in need in our community. Through our "Giving Tree," we distributed over 570 gifts and 116 Christmas dinner boxes.

Here are organizations benefiting from your generosity: SVDP's Benicia clients, Vallejo Together, Springs Road Convalescent Hospital, Heartwood Avenue Healthcare, Shamia House, Christian Help Center, Catholic Charities of Solano and Yolo Counties, Casa de Villarasa, & LAAM. Also, we sent food and toys to the fire victims of Paradise. A heartfelt thanks for sharing the love of Christ and offering hope for those in need!
