Pastor's Corner

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

This week you will see a two-page financial report in the middle this bulletin. Due to your incredible generosity, our parish is in great financial shape. Last week we sent the last payment off for the rectory, so it is totally paid off. As a result, we have no long-term debt. What a blessing! You will also see we also have reserve funds in our savings and building funds. You have also remained very generous to the many charities whom have asked for your financial assistance, such as the parish school, Dominican student brothers, Fr. Charles' Nigerian mission and the victims of the Napa/Sonoma fires.

The one area of improvement we need to consider is our regular weekly offerings also known as "keeping the lights on". We finished our last fiscal year (ending in June) with a $16,059 budget deficit, which is 1.5% of our total budget. To put that into perspective $16,059 is just one healthy Sunday collection. So, while I am not worried about this for the long term, if you would consider ways to increase your giving a little each Sunday we could easily close the 1.5% gap. Perhaps, if you were making a monthly gift to the rectory fund you could now continue that gift as a regular offering to help us continue to meet the everyday needs of the church. Again, I would like to thank you for your generosity.

Next Sunday we kick off National Catholic Schools Week. Here at St. Dominic's we are blessed to have a thriving Catholic School as part of our community. It is our most important shared ministry because these students are the future of the Church as we prepare them for lives of service and leadership in the mission of our Lord. All of us Dominicans enjoy visiting the classrooms each week to teach and interact with our students. Our school leads the region in academic results and programs and I encourage everyone to take a walk through the Parish Hall next week and visit the classrooms to see the great work being done. Many of the upper grade students and alumni will be leading tours. It's a great time to consider St. Dominic School. Next Sunday at 9AM Mass you'll see many students coming to Mass in their uniforms, I encourage you to engage them and ask them what they like best about St. Dominic School!

Prospective families that would like a tour can register for the event online at www.sdbenicia.org/openhouse Dominican School!

God bless,
Fr. Jerome

St. Dominic's Catholic Church
Annual Report to the Faithful

We wish to begin by thanking you, the community of St. Dominic's, for your generosity. Because of you, the daily work of preaching and living the Gospel here at St. Dominic's continues to thrive. Over these past few years, we have maintained strong cash reserves and have been able to operate without debt. In addition to supporting the day-to-day operations of the parish, your generosity provided for so much more:

We built the new rectory with no long-term debt.

We provided over $16,500 in tuition assistance for our parish school.

We donated over $13,000 to help educate our Dominican student brothers.

We collected over $9,000 for Fr. Charles Ojorchelumi's mission in Nigeria.

We came together as a community and assisted the victims of the Napa/Sonoma fires with over $50,000!

We thank you!

On the next page, we provided a summary of the parish's financial position for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2017. Here are a few of the important points:

Offertory collections represent 85% of our operating income. This money is what we use to pay our day-to-day expenses.

Offertory collections were down <$24,323> from the previous year.

We reduced our expenses by $31,128 from the previous year, mostly in the areas of building maintenance and repairs and liturgy expenses.

We ended the year with a loss of <$16,059>, mostly due to offertory collections being lower.

We continue to look at areas we can reduce expenses so we do not end this fiscal year with a loss, but we also need your help. At this time, we ask that you prayerfully consider one or all of the following ways to help us better meet our expenses:

Register with the parish to receive donation envelopes.

Increase your weekly, monthly or quarterly donations by any amount.

Sign up for online giving at <https://www.myowngiving.com/Default.aspx?cid=1606>.

Ask your employer about matching gifts, designate your Mandatory Retirement Distribution (MRD), or donate stock to St. Dominic's.

The generosity of our parish community continues to inspire all of us on the Parish Finance Council. We thank you for your continued help.

Liturgy Notes: Ordinary Time

After weeks of celebrating, the Church shifts gear and we have begun the first of two parts of the liturgical season called "Ordinary Time." As you may have guessed, despite its title, this season is anything but "Ordinary."

The liturgical calendar for the Church is broken up into seasons. We have just concluded the Christmas season, which included the celebrations of the Baptism of the Lord and Epiphany. The Easter Season includes the great celebrations of the Easter Vigil and Pentecost. We have two preparatory times, Advent and Lent that help us prepare for the great celebrations of Christmas and Easter. There are still thirty-four weeks of the calendar year that are not attached to any specific celebrations. But it doesn't mean that these weeks are not important. Rather than celebrating a specific event, the weeks of Ordinary Time celebrate the whole mystery of Christ. The Season is also called "Ordinary" because each of the weeks is numbered or counted (from the Latin word ordinarius meaning "according to order"). This leads us then to the question, to what are we "counting"? Our time is ordered around the Paschal Mystery of Christ. We "count" toward the return of Christ in glory – when the paschal mystery of Christ's self-giving becomes complete. Ordinary Time reminds us that Christ will one day return in glory and the world and all of life will be transformed into the kingdom of God.

As we change seasons, the liturgy and the environment of the Church change. In Ordinary Time, the primary color seen in the Church is green. Our readings also change. During Ordinary Time this year we will hear the gospel according to Saint Mark. During all three years of the Lectionary cycle, however, the second Sunday of Ordinary time uses a gospel chosen from John rather than the gospel assigned for the year. The reason for this is that we continue to center on the manifestation of the Lord, which we had celebrated recently at Epiphany. This early period of Ordinary Time also focuses on the early events in Jesus' public ministry, especially the call of the disciples and the beginning of Jesus' public ministry.

As we begin this special time, let us pray that we may be open to the call of God in our own lives and allow ourselves to be transformed by God's love.

Exodus: A Great Adventure Bible Study

Join Br. Matthew in a Great Adventure Bible Study, Exodus: Called to Freedom

The Exodus is the defining moment in Israel's history, when God called Israel out of slavery in Egypt and to a life of freedom as His people. Exodus: Called to Freedom looks through the lens of Christ to show that, more than just seeking to free His people from Pharaoh, God desired to free His people from the tyranny of sin, to live in authentic freedom. Because of this, the Exodus story is not just Israel's story, it is our story as well; it tells us who God is and what He calls us to be.

Our Group Will:

- Learn the keys to authentic freedom.
- Discover the divine purpose behind the plagues on Egypt as more than simply a demonstration of God's power.
- Understand the importance of the Sabbath to God's people.
- Learn how a proper understanding of the Exodus event can illuminate your understanding of the Christian Faith.

This Week's Gospel Reflection

No better time than now

This Sunday's Gospel reading is a call to surrender ourselves fully to God. "NOW is the time of fulfillment" -- not just 2000 years ago, not at the Second Coming of Christ, but right now in your life where you need Jesus the most.

"The kingdom of God is at hand" -- what you need from the Lord is right here, at hand, ready for you.

"Repent, and believe in the gospel" means "Come follow Me and learn from Me to become like Me." For the first disciples, it meant dropping whatever they were doing to spend so much time with Jesus that their whole lives were forever affected. And this is what it means for you and for me: We have to put aside our own agendas and busy schedules to spend more time following Jesus wherever he leads us.

In the modern world, we have become more dependent on our technological devices than on Jesus. Many of us cannot even go on vacation without remaining accessible to their employers via the cell phone. Somehow, we need to find a way to take a stand against this. It's one of the social justice teachings of the Church: We are actually called by God to rebel against working on Sundays and other days of rest. Why? Because we need to spend that time with Jesus getting renewed, restored and re-energized.

Unfortunately, Jesus doesn't walk through the door and circle dates on our calendar and write "Rest with Jesus" so that we can plan ahead. We have to follow his lead at a moment's notice -- every moment. To experience the kingdom of God on the earthly side of heaven, we have to be willing to drop everything to follow Jesus into unfamiliar places at unexpected times. We have to learn to follow his lead even in situations where his way is the surprising way.

Questions for Personal Reflection:

What's on your to-do list? What keeps you busy? What are your goals for the future? What are you dreaming of? If Jesus has a different plan for your day or for your life, how easily could you switch over to new ideas and plans?

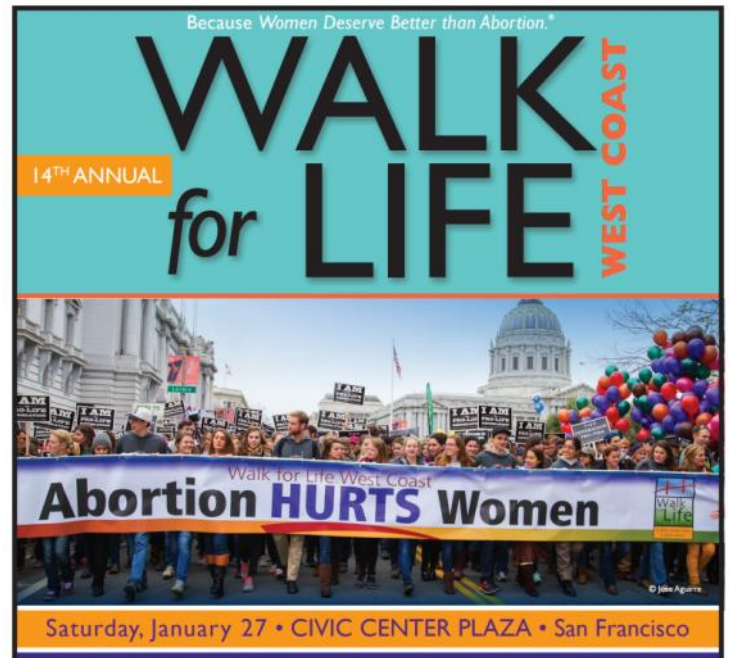

Questions for Community Faith Sharing:

What are some of the nets you've abandoned in the past in order to follow Jesus? How difficult was that to do? Are you happy about it now? Why? How was this an experience of the kingdom of God on earth?
