Pastor's Corner

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

We are one week away from Easter Sunday when we celebrate Jesus Christ conquering sin and rising from the death. But before we can celebrate, we must walk with Jesus Christ as He undergoes His Passion. Perhaps, you look back on your Lenten journey you didn't meet all of the sacrifices or commitments you had intended back on Ash Wednesday or you are still struggling to really make time and connect with Jesus in a deeper way. It's not too late! Today as we celebrate Palm Sunday and we listen again to the Passion of our Lord, we can enter Holy Week with a renewed focus and intimacy with Jesus.

Our Church has beautiful liturgies that allow us to use all of our senses to experience our lived salvation. Please consider joining us Thursday, Friday and Saturday mornings at 8:15 am for Tenebrae as we chant the Divine Offices of Matins and Lauds.

Also consider attending one or all three of the liturgies of Holy Thursday, when we represent the institution of the priesthood and the Eucharist, Good Friday, where we venerate Christ's suffice Cross, and the Vigil Mass, the first official celebration of the Resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead. On Friday several parishioners will give their own personal reflections on the Seven Last Words of Christ and how they affect them. If you have never been to an Easter Vigil it should be on your bucket list. In fact, the instruction of the Roman Missal states, the Vigil is "the mother of all Vigils" and "the greatest and most noble of all solemnities". You will also be able to see me pour copious amounts of water on six of our parishioners as I baptize them.

Holy Lent,
Fr. Jerome

Properly Disposing of Sacred Items

How to properly dispose of sacred objects?

How should you properly dispose of broken rosaries, Bibles used beyond repair, palm branches from previous Palm Sundays, old husbands, broken statues, and other blessed or sacred objects that can no longer be used?

The simplest way to dispose of blessed items is to drop them off at the parish office in a container clearly marked "Blessed Item(s) – Please Bury". From time to time we will take these blessed items to our Dominican cemetery and they will be buried in sacred ground. So, please feel free to drop off your blessed items at the parish office and we can properly dispose of them for you.

Holy Water can simply be poured in the ground.

Pontifical Good Friday Collection

PROVIDING CARE TO CHRISTIANS IN THE HOLY LAND

Pope Francis has asked our parish to support the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, which helps Christians in the Holy Land.

Your support helps the church minister in parishes, provide Catholic schools and offer religious education. The Pontifical Good Friday Collection also helps to preserve the sacred shrines.

The wars, unrest and instability have been especially hard on Christians. In these times of crisis, the Pontifical Good Friday Collection provides humanitarian aid to refugees. When you contribute to the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, you become an instrument of peace and join with Catholics around the world in solidarity with the Church in the Holy Land.

PLEASE BE GENEROUS!

For more information about Christians in the Holy Land, visit www.myfranciscan.org/good-Friday.

The Franciscan Monastery of the Holy Land in America is the home of a world-wide Commissariat of Friars Minor and monasteries who function as bridges between the Holy Land and Christians all over the world. The Commissariat offices here at the Monastery in Washington, D.C. coordinate the vital support for the work of the Franciscans who work in the Holy Land.

The Franciscans of the Custody of the Holy Land have the unique responsibility of caring for the Holy Places as well as caring for the Christians living in the Holy Land. It is vital that we care for the Christians living in the Holy Land in order to maintain a Christian presence in a land that is filled with a majority Islamic and Jewish population.

Help Support Bishop Gallegos Maternity Home with the Annual Baby Bottle Fundraiser!

This simple campaign provides needed funds for BGMH's ministry to women in an unplanned pregnancy who are in need of shelter and care before the birth of their baby, and for a cushion of time afterwards, to ensure their safe return to the community. BGMH cares for 18 women and their babies and often has a waiting list.

Take a bottle and fill with coins, bills, or checks made out to BGMH to support these women who chose life for their babies. Return your bottles to the Parish Office during regular business hours before Easter.

New Bible Study!

Join Br. Matthew's New Bible Study Series on the Gospel of St. Matthew!

St. Matthew's Gospel was considered the most influential and popular book among the early Christian community. For the early Jewish Christians, in particular, St. Matthew clearly makes the case for how the long awaited hopes of the Jewish people are being fulfilled in Jesus.

If you've ever wanted to learn more about how Jesus fulfilled the Old Testament then this study is for you!

The Gospel of Matthew: The Messiah and the Fulfillment of the Old Testament study will cover:

–Who wrote the Gospel of Matthew.

–Why the long genealogy at the beginning of Matthew is of vital importance to the Gospel of Matthew's message.

–How the Gospel of Matthew clearly makes Jesus out to be a new and greater Moses, David, Solomon, and Isaac.

–The shocking paradoxes of the Sermon on the Mount and the implications of them for our spiritual life.

–Aspects of Jesus' infancy, public ministry, and last days in Jerusalem that show him to be the long-awaited fulfillment of what the priests, prophets, and kings of old had hoped.

Thursdays at 7PM in the Siena Room:

March 15th, 22nd, April, 19th, 26th, May 3rd, and 17th.

Fridays at 9AM in the Mary Magdalene Room:

March 16th, 23rd, April 20th, 27th, May 4th, 18th.

These classes count toward SDS Stewardship Catechism hours.

Divine Mercy Sunday

April 30, 2000, Saint Pope John Paul II during the canonization of Sister Faustina announced the Second Sunday of Easter as Divine Mercy Sunday.

Jesus told St Faustina that this Feast of Mercy would be a very special day when “all the divine floodgates through which graces flow are opened.” (Diary 699)

Jesus promised that “The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain the complete forgiveness of sins and punishment.” (Diary 699) He went on to say “I want to grant a complete pardon to the souls that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion on the Feast of My Mercy.” (Diary 1109)

Our Lord said “When you go to confession, to this fountain of My mercy, the Blood and Water which came forth from My Heart always flows down upon your soul...” and “Every time you go to confession, immerse yourself entirely in My mercy with great trust, so that I may pour the bounty of My grace upon your soul. When you approach the confessional, know this, that I Myself am waiting there for you. I am only hidden by the priest, but I Myself act in your soul. Here the misery of the soul meets the God of Mercy” (Diary 1602)

Jesus also asks us to celebrate the Hour of Great Mercy, promising tremendous graces to those who would at three o'clock, implore My mercy, especially for sinners; and, if only for a brief moment, immerse yourself in My Passion, particularly in My abandonment at the moment of agony.

This is the hour of great mercy ... In this hour I will refuse nothing to the soul that makes a request of Me in virtue of My Passion. (Diary 1320).

Please join our parish community for a Celebration of Mercy,
Sunday, April 8th. Attend our FREE dinner reception after the Sunday
5:00PM Mass in the Parish Hall.

We want to encourage everyone to take advantage of the incredible promises and the additional Plenary Indulgence granted on this great Feast of Mercy “Divine Mercy Sunday”. We want you to benefit fully from these promises, and we also want you to notify your family and friends about them too and urge them to return to the practice of their faith!
