Pastor's Corner

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

We have a new shrine to St. Dominic in our Church on the right side of the altar. Please take a moment to enjoy this beautiful piece of art and ask for his intercessions regarding the needs of our parish.

Below are some details found online about the original artwork:

The Original painting was estimated to be completed around 1605 by artist El Greco (Domenikos Theotokopoulos) in Spain.

From the Museum of Fine Arts in Boston...
St. Dominic was a favorite subject of El Greco and his workshop. His novel work conveys a sense of spiritual intensity as Dominic kneels in solemn devotion before the crucifix. Such paintings were especially popular during the Counter-Reformation because they encouraged direct empathetic responses from viewers.

From the Web Gallery of Art...

The painting represents the thirteenth-century founder of the Dominican order kneeling in isolation on a rocky plateau in prayerful devotion before a crucifix. Behind him is a landscape with one of El Greco's haunting skies filled with swirling, backlit clouds. Considering the individual features El Greco has given the saint, it is assumed that the picture was based upon the features of a particular person, someone the artist knew personally.

The crucifix, propped against the rocks, is repeated by El Greco in a number of paintings showing saints in devotion: he must have created a drawn or painted model that he could refer to for replication.

Holy Easter Season!

Fr. Jerome

The Tap of the Good Shepherd's Staff

In this Sunday's Gospel reading, Jesus identifies himself as the Good Shepherd. We are the sheep for whom he has laid down his life. He put everything aside for our sake -- his human desire for an easy life, the security and familiarity of a home of his own, his time, his sleep, his tiredness, and his natural preference to avoid persecution, torture and death.

We are the sheep who recognize our Shepherd's voice and willingly follow him to better pastures. We want him to be our Good Shepherd. We want his protection, his guidance, and his love.

However, sometimes we forget to listen for his voice. This usually happens when life doesn't go as planned, the way we want it to. In frustration and fear, we assume that Jesus has left the sheepfold. We think he's gone after the lost sheep and left us behind to fend for ourselves, and -- oh no! -- this is surely when the wolves attack! Doesn't he realize that? How could he do this to us if he really cares as much about us as he says he does? Why is he more concerned about the sheep who strayed than he is about us who are good sheep? However, no matter how busy Jesus gets and no matter how far he has to go to rescue lost sheep, he never leaves our side. He is always with us. When the path of life takes us to dead ends or dangerous cliffs, it's not because he's abandoned us. The pain we feel is his shepherd's staff tapping and prodding us to get us to move in a different direction, and we just haven't understood.

We don't want to go in that other direction. We like the familiarity of this old pasture. We're getting annoyed at the tap-tap-tapping of the staff on our heads. And we won't discover the blessing of this discipline until we turn again to Jesus with eyes of trust and ears that are attentive to everything he says, even if at first we don't like what he's saying.

Questions for Personal Reflection:

In what areas of your life do you feel lost and alone or abandoned? What activities can you do that will restore your vision and your hearing so you can recognize the presence of your Good Shepherd?

Questions for Community Faith Sharing:

Name some of the ways that the Good Shepherd's voice calls out to us. Share the story of a time when he prodded you but at first you didn't realize it was him. When did something feel painful until you realized that you were going in the wrong direction? What helped you recognize the voice and the staff of the Good Shepherd?

The Life Corner

Welcome to the Life Corner!

What is the Bishop Gallegos Maternity Home (BGMH)?

MINISTRY OF ST. DOMINIC'S CATHOLIC CHURCH

The Bishop Gallegos Maternity Home (BGMH) is a home for women over the age of 18 who are pregnant and in need of shelter, food, safety, comfort and support during their pregnancy and for a short time afterwards. Established in 1992, BGMH is a non-profit, non-denominational home with a loving environment. They have housed more than 1,000 women and babies since their inception. BGMH is a safe haven that provides temporary shelter, food and education to homeless, pregnant women and their infants. In addition to care and security, they offer case management services to assess the needs of homeless mothers, connecting them with necessary resources for addiction treatment, life skills education, prenatal care and post-traumatic counseling, while providing a handful of these on site. The goal of BGMH is to empower these women to become self-sufficient and independent in their return to the community with their babies or to facilitate adoption as an option if they so choose. BGMH is a pro-life home and has found that in saving babies the mothers have also been saved.
