Gospel Reflection

How God Stops Evil

As we see in this Sunday's Gospel reading, all of us who belong to Christ are fruit-bearing branches of one vine. Jesus is the vine, and because we are all attached to him, we share the same calling: to bear good fruit. And not just any fruit that seems good, but the same fruit that Jesus produced.

However, most of us underestimate how important this is! You are more valuable than you know. God wants you to produce Christ's fruit – and more of it. Today too many Christians are settling for mediocrity. As long as we get some personal satisfaction from being Christian, we feel all too easily satisfied. As long as we're helping some people with our kindness or generosity or love, we think God is satisfied with the good fruits we're producing.

Have you ever asked why there's so much evil in the world? Why doesn't God raise his almighty hand against war, against corruption in government, against the greed of high-salaried managers who lay off their employees while giving themselves huge bonuses, against the perpetrators of physical and emotional abuse, against legislation that discriminates against Christian faith, against rising crime rates, or against any evil that's corrupting our world? Why doesn't God do something?

Actually, he does! However, he does it the same way he grows grapes. The life-force of the vine (Jesus) travels through the vine to the little twigs (you and me and all Christians) that hold the grapes. The more open we are to receiving nourishment from Christ, the more fruit Jesus produces through us. But the grapes are not supposed to stay there!

We're nourished by Christ in order to take his fruits abundantly out into the world. We must grow strong and healthy, branch out, and use everything we've received from Christ for the sake of others.

Evil is stopped to the extent that we Christians continue Christ's earthly ministry. Victory over evil comes from Christ, that is, through us from Christ. Holiness in the world comes from Christ's Holy Spirit actively transforming it through our holiness.

Questions for Personal Reflection:

Are you doing everything you can to grow the best grapes on your branch of Christ's vine? How healthy is your connection to Christ? What in your life needs to be pruned off because it's not producing full, abundant fruit?

Questions for Community Faith Sharing:

Name some of the things we do that fertilize the vineyard. What has helped your branch grow stronger and bear more fruit? How does ignoring the need to prune ourselves hinder the growth of good fruit -- evil-defeating good fruit?

2. Recovering the basics: virtue and friendship
3. Real freedom, real love
4. The lost "art" of living
5. Engaging moral relativism
6. "I disagree" doesn't mean "I hate you"

The Life Corner

Welcome to the Life Corner!

This is Catlin's story and how Bishop Gallegos Maternity Home gave her hope and a new life:

At 13 years of age, I started using drugs and alcohol and became addicted. By the time I was 20, I had been in abusive relationships, in jail, had two children, and became homeless. Consequently, I lost custody of my children. In spite of all my efforts to stop using, I was not successful for any period of time. Guilt, hopelessness, and shame became part of my daily life. Finally, on April 5, 2015, I decided I had to change my life. That is the DAY I stopped using. One month after that day, I found out I was pregnant. So, I decided to do things differently and checked myself into a 90 day drug rehabilitation center. While in rehabilitation, I was able to get a sponsor and began to work the 12 steps of Alcoholics Anonymous. While in rehab, they told me about Bishop Gallegos Maternity Home. I called them and was able to get on the waiting list. On January 25, 2015, BGMH called and said they had a room for me. While at BGMH, I continued to work on myself by attending counseling groups provided by BGMH, such as NA, AA, a class on Ready-to-Rent and group counseling. On March 28, 2016, I gave birth to my beautiful son. When we came home from the hospital, the BGMH staff answered any questions I had, helped me care for my son, and find future housing. When my son became three months old I was accepted into Mather housing. While I was at Mather, I continued to go to BGMH and volunteer as often as I could. BGMH gave me and my son so much love and support, that I wanted to give back what had been so freely given to me. While volunteering, BGMH offered me a job as one of the live-in staff. I accepted the job and started working on August 8, 2017. BGMH has done so much for me and my children as well. Today, I am a part of my children's lives, and I wake up every morning grateful and proud of myself. BGMH has given me the opportunity to help women who went through similar challenges and show them that they too can change their life.

Keeping myself open to the rays of the Divine Host, in this furnace of love, I shall be consumed, and like a Seraphim, Lord, I shall love You."- St. Therese of Lisieux

Gospel of St. Matthew

Join Br. Matthew's New Bible Study Series on the Gospel of St. Matthew!

St. Matthew's Gospel was considered the most influential and popular book among the early Christian community. For the early Jewish Christians, in particular, St. Matthew clearly makes the case for how the long-awaited hopes of the Jewish people are being fulfilled in Jesus.

If you've ever wanted to learn more about how Jesus fulfilled the Old Testament then this study is for you!
