Pastor's Corner

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

May 29th to June 1st I snuck away for four days of retreat. Friends of mine allowed me to use their vacation property in Nice, CA. Yes, the city lives up to its name. What does one do on retreat? Well, according to my fit bit, on three of the four days I accomplished 0 active minutes. This means in three 24-hour periods I did not move more the 59 continuous seconds.

So, what did I do? I slept, prayed and read. All of these activities require no physical movement but lots of spiritual rewards. God is good! I also went 60 hours without seeing or hearing another human being. You all know I am a people person but it was so nice to just listen to the silence.

I would like to thank everyone who made the Corpus Christi procession such a blessed event after the 5:00 pm Mass on June 2nd. The incense, flowers, singing, prayer stations all came together to give worthy praise and honor to our God in the Most Holy Eucharist.

This week we have been gearing up for Vacation Bible Camp. We have over 100 volunteers (between setting up, week of camp and clean up). We have 108 campers who will be shipwrecked and rescued by Jesus all here on campus. Please keep all of our campers and volunteers in your prayers.

God bless,
Fr. Jerome
