Pastor's Corner

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

I am heading home on Monday for a week to attend my 30th high school reunion. This picture is from my high school year book. Is that a mullet!? I am excited to see my high school friends and spend some time with my family.

I have to also admit I am a little nervous. Whenever I fly I wear my habit or roman collar. As you know, I love being a priest and am proud to be a Catholic. However, we know these days it is a challenge to be proud of some of the members of the clergy and hierarchy in the Church. Due to this, I must admit I considered going incognito, and just wearing a pair of jeans and t-shirt.

Then I thought about the vows husbands and wives make to each other. "I promise to be true to you in good times and in bad, in sickness and in health. I will love you and honor you all the days of my life." I also thought of the promise I made at my priestly ordination. I promised to be united more closely every day to Christ the High Priest, who offered himself for us to the Father as a pure sacrifice and to consecrate themselves to God for the salvation of all. Now while I am not worthy to be compared to Jesus Christ, I am called to model my life after his.

So, I must try to be the light of Christ in this time of darkness. If I get dirty looks from people, so did Jesus for something He did not do. If someone says something negative to me, it also happened to Jesus for something He did not do. It is times like these when we the faithful must live our vows and promises we made to God at our baptisms, confirmations, weddings or ordinations. It is times like these that we must be proud of what God has done for us by dying on the Cross, so our sins can be forgiven.

I am still a little nervous but let's see how God can use you and me as His messengers of love, healing and hope in these troubling times.

God Bless,

Fr. Jerome

40 DAYS FOR LIFE: SEPT. 26th – NOV. 4th

We are well underway with the Fall 2018 40 Days For Life Campaign. You have all been very generous with your time in our past campaigns, and so I wanted to reach out again to see if you might be able and willing to participate again this time around.

Privately, you can commit to a program of fasting during the campaign, and/or prayer, meditation and reflection. There is a link to the 40 Day's for Life website <https://40daysforlife.com/> that contains information about what is going on all over our country and world with regard to the campaign in helping to save babies' lives and promote a Culture of Life.

Publicly, St. Dominic's is once again joining other local parishes in our area in prayer vigils outside the Planned Parenthood office located at 303 Sacramento St., Vallejo, CA. Our goal is to have a minimum of two people praying at each hour. St. Dominic's parish will be responsible for Wednesdays from 6am to 6pm.

We do these activities as the Body of Christ - witnessing to the beauty, sanctity and dignity of the human person. We pray for mothers and fathers, for their babies and for God's will to be done in their lives.

Please prayerfully consider joining your brothers and sisters in Christ from St. Dominic's and encourage a friend or family member to join you in whatever activity, private and/or public, you choose to do for the building up of a Culture of Life.

You are welcome to e-mail me- tonyh@ctpub.com - with an hour that works for your schedule, and I will begin filling out our schedule. God Bless you all and thanks for your prayerful consideration.

SK Tony Hensley, #7268
Campaign Co-Chair

RESPECT LIFE CORNER

respectlife@stdombenicia.org

As we have begun 40 DAYS FOR LIFE the Respect Life Ministry here at St. Dominic's shares testimonials to alternative choices. If you are interested in sharing your story or participating in this ministry, please email them to find out more information.

A high school love story swept into a surprise chapter of an unexpected pregnancy. Both young parents had already chosen their universities and were looking forward to their future and promising careers. They knew in their hearts they were not ready to make a lifelong commitment together.

Telling their parents about the pregnancy was very traumatic indeed - disappointment, anger, judgment, and tears did in time become support and acceptance. No one - the students or their parents - ever thought about abortion. It was always a question of what was best for all concerned. It was our story; our unwanted pregnancy to suffer through all the criticism of friends and family. It was a difficult journey, emotional sometimes but not without moments of humor. Our families endured while appreciating the courage of the young parents to bring this life into the world. The baby was born, and the decision was made to give the baby up for adoption. A wonderful family was found that surprisingly matched many of the characteristics of the parents.

The story ended with a child lost....but, in truth, a child was found. The baby found his family of love and I think we all could thank God for this new life and its promise.

Anonymous and grateful.

Reflecting on the Psalms

Br. Patrick will be leading a weekly discussion group on selected psalms from the Old Testament. Each week, we will read a few psalms together, and then we will reflect on the spiritual insights that they contain. No homework needed. Everyone is invited. This counts for SDS catechism hours.

THE LITURGICAL MINISTRIES OF THE CHURCH

This weekend we hear in the gospel that whoever performs a mighty deed in the name of the Lord will surely not lose his reward. Each time we hear and respond to the needs of others we are hearing and answering the call of God. This happens every time we gather for liturgy. We see many people, who gather and who answer this call to serve others. In the document Environment and Art in Catholic Worship, the authors write, "God does not need liturgy; people do, and people have only their own arts and styles of expression with which to celebrate." They continue, "In our need for liturgy, for good ritual done together, we offer our skills in this or that art so that the liturgy may be beautiful and strong. This is all we have."

Henri Nouwen describes ministry as "being present" to others. He continues, "It means to care for others enough that you are willing to 'be with' them,..." We are fortunate that so many people in all the different cultural communities continue to make this commitment to our community of faith. Imagine any weekend here at Saint Dominic's. Here's a small sample of what you might see: teams of Eucharistic Ministers who help distribute communion to our community and to those who are homebound and unable to come to Church; Lectors proclaiming the readings at each of the Masses; children and young adults serving as acolytes at each of the Masses; musicians too numerous to count from different cultural communities who sing or play instruments at all the Masses; the Art and Environment which helps create an environment that helps us to pray; and adults who gather the small children of the community for a special liturgy each Sunday. This is just a brief sample; there are many, many others who faithfully serve to take care of all the different needs of the community each week. Each of them truly exemplifies what Henri Nouwen meant when he talked about "minister."

Raimondo Panikkar wrote, "To worship implies, 'to do,' to work and collaborate in the construction of the earthly city, being at the same time very conscious that this city has a dimension which transcends what is visible at first sight, that the city of God is not a second city, but the real world of which the appearance is precisely this, our visible world. To build up, to discover, to create – or whatever expression we may here choose – this too is the function of worship today." We are blessed to have so many people willing to serve our community as liturgical ministers. May we all be open to hearing the call of God.
