Pastor's Corner

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

My trip home was a blessed visit. My parents say hello and the rest of the family says thank you for allowing me to sneak home to spend time with them. I think I broke my record for number of bagels and pizza consumed over an eight-day period. I will have to do some extra hiking to work it off.

My reunion was the best one to date. About 45 classmates and a few spouses spent the evening catching up with what is new and exciting in our lives, and telling war stories from our youth. It was also a chance to get to know some classmates I never spoke with when we were in high school because we ran in different crowds.

As for my apprehension of how people will react to a priest with everything going on in the Church, when I got on BART to head to SFO a man, who is older than me, offered me his seat, and a lady of the same plane out of SFO said she was more comfortable flying because I was on the plane. I also got lots of hugs and well wishes from my classmates at the reunion. God is good!

God Bless,
Fr. Jerome

DOMINICAN STUDENT APPEAL

Last Chance to Help the Dominican Student Brothers!

THANK YOU to all who have responded to our recent Rosary Sunday: Dominican Appeal.

If you haven't been able to reply yet, you still have a chance to help 34 young men currently in formation to become your future Dominican priests and religious brothers.

Your support of appeal truly makes a difference in the lives of the friars. Without your help, and God's grace, their vocations would not be possible.

Please use the envelopes in your pew or go online at www.opwest.org/rs to make a gift today.

The Dominican Student Brothers thank you for your generosity!

The Young Church

St. Dominic's Youth Ministry

Who are the youth of St. Dominic's? They are disciples, Christ's hands and feet in our parish and within the larger community. These young men and women can best be described as inquisitive and eager to grow in faith. They are generous with their time and their desire to serve.

An aspect of youth ministry most of us are familiar with is teen confirmation preparation. Currently, there are one hundred-thirty teens preparing for the Sacrament of Confirmation. You will find them on campus on Sundays and Mondays, participating in small group gatherings and activities. Confirmation is a big part of youth ministry, but ministry with youth is not a single program, it is comprehensive. It extends beyond confirmation and is reflected in eight Church ministries outlined by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops. These ministries include: community life, justice & service, evangelization, leadership, pastoral care, prayer & worship, advocacy, and catechesis. Just like the adults in our parish, the young Church is diverse and so are the opportunities offered to them.

Youth Ministry is the work of each family and the work of the Church. It is an important way young people are prepared for mission beyond the Church walls. Ministry prepares the baptized for mission; it is our Baptism that sends us forth to transform the world and to share the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Youth Advisory Council

St. Dominic's Youth Advisory Council includes eight teens who meet once a month to plan activities and gatherings for the youth of St. Dominic's Parish. Last year, council member Adriana V. formed a teen, Right to Life group that supported the Walk for Life – West Coast as well as 40 Days for Life. The council looks forward to monthly, "Hot Topic" gatherings, the first which will begin on Sunday, October 28th. A list of upcoming youth ministry gatherings can be found on the parish website at www.stdombenicia.org. Select Faith Formation, then Teen Ministry.

A snapshot of Youth Ministry over the past year...

September 2017:

Youth Advisory Council Hospitality:

There may not be donuts after the Sunday, 5:00 Mass, but occasionally there is ice cream! Last September the Youth Advisory Council along with youth leaders, Susan Hall and Dee Rodriguez sponsored a "make a sundae" gathering in the Parish Hall after the Youth & Young Adult Mass. This celebration was enjoyed by many.

October 2017: Rosary Walk at Sunset & Dessert on the Marina Green

In support of One Million Rosaries for America, the youth of our parish prayed the rosary downtown last fall. Led by Br. Christopher, (now Fr. Christopher) this beautiful prayer was followed by dessert on the Marina Green. All youth are invited to join us on October 16th at 5:30 pm as we head downtown again to pray the rosary. This will be followed by dessert on the Marina Green.

November 2017:

St. Vincent de Paul Food Box

Deliveries & Holy Spirit Retreat

Each year, the youth of our parish and their parents serve our community by assisting St. Vincent de Paul with food box deliveries at Thanksgiving, Christmas and Easter.

November also brought the teen, confirmation leadership team together to serve at the Holy Spirit Retreat. It was a day filled with faith talks, activities, food, and the Holy Spirit!

December 2017:

Epiphany Kit Assembly

For the past several years, several youth and parents of our parish have come together in December to form an assembly line as they put together 750 Epiphany Kits for parishioners to take home. Many hands make for light work.

January 2018:

Right to Life Group & Walk for Life

The new year brought the teen Right to Life group together to talk about what it means to protect all life, from womb to tomb. They spent time preparing for the Walk for Life – West Coast that took place in San Francisco on January 27th. (Continued page 7)

Knot 4 Love Service Group

In fall and early winter, the Knots 4 Love service group led by youth leader Mary Morrow, meets once a month to make blankets (without a sewing machine) for members of our community. Blankets have been donated to the Vallejo Care Center as well as Vallejo Together, an organization that helps our brothers and sisters who are in need, become self-sufficient.

March 2018:

Blessing Bags

Thank you to all the parishioners who donated “blessing bag” items last fall and winter. Because of your generosity, our youth were able to make over fifty blessing bags that were donated to the organization, Vallejo Together. These bags, along with blankets donated by the Knots 4 Love group, were shared with our homeless friends in Vallejo.

April 2018:

Sacrament Month!

April 14, 2018 was a beautiful day. Sixty-four young men and women of St. Dominic's Parish were confirmed by Fr. Liam McCarthy.

Thank you for your continued prayers for these recently confirmed teens and for the seventy-two young men and women who will receive the sacrament of confirmation on Saturday, March 16, 2019.

May 2018:

Life Skills Cooking Class & Spring Rosary Walk

Youth leaders, Annabelle Prasad & Linda McHugh share their culinary talents with parish teens by leading youth cooking classes. The spring class featured homemade muffins and fruit salad. In early September the teens learned to make pizza and tiramisu. Cooking classes conclude with a movie and a feast!

A second, sunset rosary walk took place on a foggy evening in May. This was followed by dozens of cupcakes on the Marina Green.

June 2018:

Mt. Diablo Hike with Fr. Jerome

We ended the school year by hiking Mitchell Canyon with Fr. Jerome. It was a beautiful hike that was followed by a well-deserved pizza lunch.

July 2018:

Youth on a Mission

In late June – early July, four youth council members attended the NorCal Youth on a Mission leadership training retreat at St. Mary's College in Moraga. The retreat included workshops, social activities, prayer, and a lot of food.

Uniquely Luke (Spanish)

Understanding Luke's theology exclusively through his Gospel
Presented by Fr. Bart Hutcherson, OP

Tuesdays

October 30th- December 4th

(Excluding November 27th)

At 7:00 pm

In the Parish Hall

This course (presented in Spanish only) offers an excellent overview of the theology present in the Sunday readings of this Gospel during Year C (the liturgical year that begins in December). There is a great deal of narrative and teachings of Jesus that are unique to Luke among the four canonic gospels. These texts provide a concise vision of the theological intention of the evangelist.

Themes of the 5 session:

- ◆ October 30th: An introduction of the themes of the Gospel of Luke
- ◆ November 6th: The narratives of the infancy of Christ in Luke.
- ◆ November 13th: The parables of Luke.
- ◆ November 20th: Episodes at the Table in Luke.
- ◆ December 4th: The passion of Christ in Luke.

Adoption: Faith in Action

After we got married in 2010, as most couples are, my husband and I were excited to begin our family. But as we learned before too long, what we had in mind and what God had in mind were just a little different. Six months after the wedding I was diagnosed with breast cancer. And after a year of (successful!) treatment, we learned that having biological children ultimately was not in the cards for us. That didn't dampen our desire for a family, though, and we quickly turned to adoption as the way we would welcome children into our lives.

Between our families, Neil and I have four nieces and nephews who were adopted. We knew it could be a lengthy and complicated process, but we also knew there were amazing payoffs. We waited three years before we were matched with our first child's birth mother. During that time we had plenty of opportunities to be doubtful of the process and feel down on our luck, but ultimately we trusted that God had a plan for us. The plan began on May 21st 2015, when we were called to the hospital in Fairfield, CA to welcome our first son, Matthew, into the world. Three years later, this April 22nd, we met Teddy at a South Carolina hospital where he was born. We held each of our boys in our arms just minutes after they were born, and they'll forever be our children.

Not only are we thankful for our two beautiful, healthy boys, we are eternally grateful to their birth moms, who each made the difficult decision to have their babies knowing that they would not be the ones to raise them. Our birth moms are a part of our extended family now. They each had different reasons for placing their children for adoption, but they are both brave and beautiful women who played critical roles in our becoming a family. Their actions were out of pure love.

We'd be happy to talk to anyone about our experience with adoption, and we're so glad to be able to share our story as we come together as a parish to celebrate life.

Kathleen and Neil Leary

LITURGY NOTES MUSIC QUESTIONS

We do quite a bit of singing at Mass and sometimes we might not be sure what or why we are supposed to sing. I thought I would try to answer some of the common questions that I have received regarding the music or music ministers in Liturgy:

Is it all right to applaud for the musicians at the end of Mass when they do an especially good job?

To applaud for the musicians implies that they are performers and that we are an audience. In reality, the primary musicians at Mass are the members of the assembly. The people up front (or in the choir loft) are there to assist us with our music. The question is perhaps easier to understand if it is asked in terms of the homilist, lector, or communion minister. Is it appropriate to applaud for these ministers when they do a good job? Clearly it is not. Likewise, we would not applaud for the musicians, no matter how wonderful they are. On some occasions, when the liturgy as a whole has been exceptional, it might be appropriate for the assembly to applaud for itself as an acclamation of joy and praise. However, a more liturgical response might be to sing another song if the joy is so pregnant it cannot be contained.

Is it all right to have more than one cantor at Mass?

The primary purpose of the cantor is to lead the assembly in song and to encourage the assembly to sing, to proclaim the Word of God in singing the responsorial psalm, and to assist with their responsorial singing. The number of people who do this ministry at a given liturgy is not important. In fact, Music in Catholic Worship says, "Provision would be made for at least one to two properly trained singers, especially where there is no possibility of setting up even a small choir" (35). What is important is that the assembly is given clear direction and feel invited to participate. If two or three cantors seem to the assembly to be a small singing group that is focused on itself or is singing only to demonstrate its own virtuosity, the assembly is not likely to participate. If, however, two or three cantors join together to give strength to each other and out of that confidence they lend confidence to the assembly, they are acting as effective liturgical ministers.

Were those some of the questions you wondered about? Do you have a question about Music or other practices you see in the Liturgy? Please know that if you have been wondering about something, I can guarantee that others are too. I would be happy to answer any questions you might have. Feel free to call me at the parish office or e-mail me at fortiz@stdombenicia.org
