Pastor's Corner

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Our elective chapter recently ended and lots of new appointments had to be made as a result of the elections that occurred. As such, I have been appointed the new pastor of St. Raymond Church in Menlo Park, CA.

Words cannot express the sorrow I feel knowing I will be leaving this worshipping community. For the past six years you have called me father and that is a title I do not take lightly. You allowed me to baptize you, give you First Communion, witness your marriage, and bury your loved ones. You have become my family. I have seen the face of God and His love in you. I will never be able to thank you enough for all you have done for me.

I will continue as your pastor until the end of May or early June. For those of you who have signed up for the Turkey/Greece pilgrimage in September, I will know in a week or two what will happen with it. I will keep you posted.

Your new pastor will be Fr. Roberto Corral, OP. He has been a pastor before and is a former provincial. Fr. Roberto is currently ministering in Seattle with Fr. John Marie Bingham, OP.

Again, words cannot express the sorrow I feel knowing I will be leaving this worshipping community. Now, I am not dying. I will only be 60 miles away. I look forward to continuing the friendships we have developed over the years.

I love you very much!
God bless,

Fr. Jerome

A Message from the Helmholtz's

Hi everybody, and as they say here, in Mombasa, Kenya Jambo!

Sunday in Voi is a day of rest and worshipping God. We rise at 5:00 am every day for 6:30 am Mass and as we drive to Church we hear singing from every Church or Centre that we pass. The humblest of stalls, made of sticks, plastic and rags are closed. The little restaurant, where we stop every weekday morning after church to enjoy HOT tea and mandazi (a triangular type of donut which is hollow inside delicious!) is closed on Sunday. It is so impressive and pleasing to us that this community takes it seriously as they honor God. They will surely be blessed.

The spirituality is rich in our Church, Our Lady Queen of Peace Catholic Church, is presently housed in a corrugated iron building as a new Church is in the process of being built. Wow, and do the ladies dress up – that is so encouraging to witness. Ribbons, bows, lace, sparkles, sequins, matching dresses for siblings or mothers and daughters. This morning a lady pushed another lady in a wheel chair – they had matching dresses.

All Masses are in Swahili, Fr. Were (where ray) our Pastor, as well as others who fill in, will occasionally speak in English. Before we get to Church I look up the readings in the Magnificat on my phone and read them to Pat as he drives.

Only on Sunday do we have the choir and they sing at every Mass. They and the congregation sing with complete joy and abandonment as they “dance” and clap. The most impressed I have been is that they know all the words – no books. In the week the congregation sings acapella. Masses usually run overtime and as we try to exit, others are pouring in which had me stumbling over rocks and debris left on the grounds while the new Church is being built.

We drive to The Voi Wildlife Lodge where we spend the day watching the animals at the waterhole, take a swim in their fabulous pool and rest. The heat is intense now as Summer is starting in the southern hemisphere and we are not that far from the equator.

Prayers are valued and cherished especially for safety and good health.

Thank you,
Ilona and Pat
