Corpus Christi

As the ancient Israelites prepared to enter the promised land, the author of the book of Deuteronomy exclaimed, "What nation is there that has a god so close to it as the Lord our God is to us whenever we call upon Him." If the ancient Israelites had reason to wonder in amazement at the Lord's closeness to them, even more do we as Catholics have reason to praise; for our Lord Jesus Christ does not merely come to us through the words of Sacred Scripture, but He gives us His very flesh and blood to eat in the Holy Eucharist. Wow! What privilege! What blessing! What gift has been given to us! Has it ever been known, has it ever been thought, or could it ever even be imagined that God would so love the world that He would give us His very own flesh and blood? Let us never cease to thank God for such a gift and let us never take for granted such an awesome presence.
