Pastor's Corner

Fr. Carl's Bittersweet June

June is a bittersweet month for me. On the happy side, it is a month of family birthdays: mine as well as my mother's and uncle's (they were twins). I was supposed to be born on the 4th of July, but I came three and half weeks early. I spent my first month in the 1970 version of the NICU. (I was baptized that August by my newly-ordained uncle Kirby.) My mother and uncle would have been 85 this year, like Fr. David. They were born so late in the night that they almost had different birthdays. My uncle was born first, so my mother always took great delight in introducing him as her older brother.

On the sad side, my father died in June. His death was sudden but not unexpected. There were times during his thirteen-year battle with Lou Gehrig's Disease that it looked like he would not live to see me ordained. Stubborn German that he was, he died over ten years past when most people with ALS do, and also a month past my first anniversary of ordination. What added to the emotional hit was that he died the day before my mom and uncle's birthday and it also happened to be Father's Day that year. So needless to say, I have mixed emotions about Father's Day.

July, especially as a Dominican, is a time of new beginnings. All of my new assignments began July 1. I arrived here in Benicia at about 10:45 am on Monday morning. I was "welcomed" by a staff lunch for Frs. David's & Brad's birthday. The evening brought the wonderful parish potluck for the same birthday friars. My "first Mass" as pastor was the 8:15 am Mass on Tuesday morning. What a great way to start my time here. I look forward to many, many more opportunities to pray and party with you.

Coming to St. Dominic's, Benicia!
