Pastor's Corner

“When do I call a priest when I or a loved one is sick or dying?”

Part II: Quick Reference

When should I/my loved one receive the Anointing of the Sick?

Any time health is seriously impaired.

- While in the Emergency Room for immediate, life-threatening conditions (e.g., a heart attack or critical injury) or after being admitted to the hospital via the ER or Urgent Care or by a doctor for less critical, but still serious, conditions
- After a serious decline during the course of an acute, long-term or chronic illness
- Before major surgery
- The same applies for children who have sufficient use of reason to be strengthened by the sacrament
- The elderly as they become weakened, even if no serious illness is present
- In danger of death

When should I/my loved one ask for “Last Rites” or “Prayers for the Dying”?

- When death is immanent (death will occur within hours or minutes)
- When death will be soon (death will likely occur within days or weeks); this is especially important so the person can receive the Sacraments of Confession/Reconciliation and the Eucharist as Viaticum (the latter at least once, or possibly several times) and family and other loved ones can be present for these prayers

Calling a priest early on in one's illness or before one's dying moments is particularly important for celebrating the Sacrament of Reconciliation/Confession. Although Scripture is clear that the Sacrament of the Sick can forgive sins, the ordinary way Christ willed for this to happen is by way of the Sacrament of Confession/Reconciliation. And in general, the more conscious and able to participate in the sacraments and prayers of the Church the sick or dying person is, the fuller, richer and more meaningful the experience will be to the person.

Thank you

The Knights of Fr. Vilarrasa Council THANK ALL OF YOU who came by last Sunday to support our breakfast. We hope you enjoyed yourselves while helping us to be able to help others in our charitable and fraternal work for God's Church.

Missing Parishioners?

Are there people you haven't seen at Sunday Mass lately? There can be lots of reasons, but maybe it's simply they are ill or are unable to drive to Mass any longer.

If you know of these "missing" parishioners, we would like to reach out to them, visit them and bring them Communion if they wish. We need your help by making us aware of these parishioners, and we will do the rest.

Sometimes those who are "shut-in" are very lonely, and don't realize we offer this service. You can really make their lives more enjoyable by giving us their names, and if you know them, their phone numbers and addresses.

It would be a real act of charity on your part if you would call (707)-747-7220, the parish office and provide us with the names of those you haven't seen in a while.
