The International Week of Prayer for Christian Unity

Today we begin the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity. The week, or "octave" as it was originally called, was started at the beginning of the 20th century in the Episcopal Church in New York state. Our Roman Catholic participation was spotty until after Vatican II. The following are excerpts from an article tracing the development of this time of prayer. The author is the Rev. Thomas Orians of the Graymoor Ecumenical & Interreligious Institute.

"The Church Unity Octave was first observed in January 1908. Celebrated in the chapel of a small Atonement Franciscan Convent of the Protestant Episcopal Church, on a remote hillside fifty miles from New York City, this new prayer movement caught the imagination of others beyond the Franciscan Friars and Sisters of the Atonement to become an energetic movement that gradually blossomed into a worldwide observance involving many nations and millions of people...

"...When Fr. Paul and Sr. Lurana [the founders of the Church Unity Octave] became Roman Catholics, Pope [St.] Pius X gave his blessing to the Church Unity Octave and in 1916, Pope Benedict XV extended its observance to the universal church. This recognition by papal authority gave the Octave its impetus throughout the Roman Catholic Church...The Decree [on Ecumenism of the Second Vatican Council, 1964] told Roman Catholics in clear and unambiguous terms: 'In certain special circumstances, such as in prayer services for unity and during ecumenical gatherings, it is allowable, indeed desirable, that Catholics should join in prayer with their separated brethren. Such prayers in common are certainly a very effective means of petitioning for the grace of unity, and they are a genuine expression of the ties which even now bind Catholics to their separated brethren.'

"In 1993 the Pontifical Council for Promoting Christian Unity issued the Directory for the Application of Principles and Norms of Ecumenism and explicitly encouraged participation in the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity. So today the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity belongs to all Christians who are sincerely interested in the fulfillment of Christ's prayer "that all may be one." When he discusses prayer in common in his A Handbook of Spiritual Ecumenism, Cardinal Walter Kasper specifically mentions that "the celebration of the annual Week of Prayer for Christian Unity world-wide is an initiative of singular importance to be encouraged and further developed."

With our eyes fixed on the Crucified and Risen Christ, let us pray for the grace of unity Jesus himself prayed for at the first celebration of the Eucharist!
