Pastor's Corner

What's love got to do with it?

Today's Gospel is challenging, to say the least. "You have heard that it was said, 'An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth.' But I say to you, offer no resistance to one who is evil. When someone strikes you on your right cheek, turn the other one to him as well... You have heard that it was said, 'You shall love your neighbor and hate your enemy.' But I say to you, love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, that you may be children of your heavenly Father, for he makes his sun rise on the bad and the good, and causes rain to fall on the just and the unjust." Matthew 5:38-39, 43-46

Jesus is commanding his followers to imitate the example of the Father, who has never ceased doing good to humanity, no matter how unfaithful we are. It started with the disobedience of our first parents and has not stopped. St. Thomas Aquinas taught that "to love is to will the good of another." (Summa Theologicae I-II 26) No person, no situation or circumstance can take that power away from us; we can, however, choose not to use it. St. Paul taught the Romans "I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor present things, nor future things, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord." (Romans 8:38-39) In other words, God's will for our good (God's love for us) cannot be changed by anyone or anything other than God, which is simply not going to happen. In that same letter, St. Paul said, "God proves his love for us in that while we were still sinners Christ died for us." (ibid, 5:8) And it is ongoing, as Matthew points out, "[the Father] makes his sun rise on the bad and the good, and causes rain to fall on the just and the unjust."

Modern movements (and research!) have shown that non-violent resistance is more effective than violence in addressing injustice in the long term, so what the Lord is commanding, although goes against what our broken human nature gravitates toward, is sound. It also breaks the cycle of victimhood by empowering victims. Never ceasing to will the good of another, even toward those who have wronged or persecuted us, is truly God-like. Jesus is calling us to act like our heavenly Father. Is easy? No! Will we struggle? Of course! But if we want to be what we've been called to be, children of our heavenly Father, we must live by Kingdom values.

-Fr. Carl, O.P.

Abbey of New Clairvaux, "If only the stones that make up the Abbey of New Clairvaux could speak". The long arduous journey of the stone. They began their journey as a Spanish Trappist Monastery in the 12th century, and rebuilt in the 16th century, which was then dismantled, and the stones traveled from Madrid to California. William R. Hearst planned to rebuild the monastery, which never happened. The stones were donated to the city of San Francisco where they were left for years in crates in Golden Gate Park. They were deteriorating. Finally, the Abbey of New Clairvaux got hold of them, and been rebuilt into their rightful place, a chapel of the Monastery in Vina.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults A Journey in Faith

The journey of faith begins with your questions...

Are you interested in joining the Catholic Church? Do you have questions about the Church and your faith? RCIA helps adults grow in their relationship with God, become familiar with Catholic worship, teaching and practices, get acquainted with people in the parish, and get involved in service. There are four stages in the process which may extend over one Church year.

Inquirers

Are you or someone you know interested in learning more about the Catholic faith and what the Catholic Church offers us? St. Dominic's Catholic Church in Benicia has a great and welcoming faith community.

Wednesday, March 4th at 7:00 pm in the Ministry Center Aquinas Room

The Inquirer meetings happen the 1st Wednesday of the month. In a comfortable, no-pressure, no-expectation setting where you can come to ask questions and learn more about our Catholic faith, the Catholic Church, and the RCIA program. Our thoughts and prayers are with you as you contemplate the next steps in your faith journey. RCIA is the Catholic Church's program to provide adults a foundation in the Catholic faith, and the opportunity to be fully welcomed into the Church community. Participation as an RCIA inquirer is a requisite for the RCIA program.

Current Candidates

Please pray for our current group on retreat this weekend at St. Albert's as they prepare to be received into full communion of the Catholic Church at this year's Easter Vigil.

Alumni

Looking for RCIA Alumni to read and participate in the Lenten Stations & Soup Supper on Friday, March 13th
Please email RCIA@stdombenicia.org

The modern world needs God. So many people have questions about the Catholic Church. So many people are interested in learning more about the Catholic Church but know of no setting where they can ask questions about the faith in a friendly and unthreatening setting. Even more, there are many people interested in becoming Catholic if only they had an invitation to go deeper. For all these reasons, we here at St. Dominic's place great effort in providing a lively RCIA program (that is, the Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults). During the RCIA program, souls hungry for God will be led through a systematic educational and spiritual experience where they will learn about the Catholic faith; its history, its doctrines, its sacraments, and the good news of the moral-life in Christ. Culminating in the Easter Vigil, participants will be prepared to receive full sacramental initiation into the Catholic Church and become fully part of our Catholic Family. If you or someone you know is interested in becoming Catholic, contact us today for more information about RCIA.

~Familiar faces around the parish who went through R.C.I.A. ~

"My experience of the RCIA program far surpasses anything I could have expected or ever asked for. Not being raised with any religious education or guidance, I often felt a bit insecure initially as we would reflect on Sunday's gospel. Yet the RCIA team created a safe environment of love and respect wherein we could bring our questions and concerns for discussion, and each and every Tuesday night, I left feeling truly inspired and amazed. I simply could not help but notice the same theme revealed each week – that God loves us unconditionally, and He only desires a deep and personal relationship with each and every one of us."
~Gaye Rose RCIA 2011

"I cannot say enough wonderful things about the RCIA program at St. Dominic's Church. It was an exciting time because I was learning more about the Catholic church, my faith, and my thought process regarding life's daily challenges. I looked forward to every Wednesday night where RCIA participants could speak freely in a safe, non-judgmental environment. I met many wonderful people who shared this journey with me and I was grateful for the support and understanding from my sponsor, Sally, Chuck and Father John Marie. It is the journey that is life changing and so rewarding."

~Ashley Worsham RCIA 2011

"I was baptized Catholic as an infant but was an adult when I sought the additional sacraments of Initiation by joining RCIA. My RCIA experience allowed me to grow and develop according to my needs and what God's plans for me were. Each week the RCIA group gathered and discussed everything you can imagine; Sunday's homily, God moments, family stories, thoughts and feelings about the scriptures but most importantly the changes that were happening in our spirits that only the other RCIA candidates could validate. I would say my truth and they would say..."Me too." The entire experience is still hard to fully process let alone explain to another except to say – we all come to RCIA with different levels of need, acceptance, fear, pain and open-mindedness. Yet, we all arrived safely together in the same place – the loving arms of God and the St. Dominic's community. Imagine my surprise when several years later I was asked to be the RCIA coordinator. It is a privilege and honor to journey with others and watch the awakening of their spirits. Always the message is love; God loves you and desires to be in relationship with you. We are here to walk with you!"

~Shannon Carter RCIA 2011

"My husband Dan and I have been parishioners at St. Dominic's Church for 8+ years. My husband, Dan is a cradle Catholic and because I only attended Catholic school for a short period of time, I didn't complete any other sacraments other than baptism. As our family began attending mass regularly I decided to seek out to be confirmed by the church. My husband and I also wanted to get our marriage Convalidated, which is when I reached out to RCIA at St. Dominic's. I began attending RCIA meetings and got to know some of the other families seeking out their sacraments. Deacon Shawn and Shannon Carter lead the RCIA group and were a great support for me through the confirmation process. Attending RCIA was key to me understanding my faith on a deeper level and necessary to prepare me for my confirmation."

In the Gospel Jesus says, "You are the light of the world," he is calling us to live our Christian vocation in words and deeds. Be a "light" to those living in poverty by giving a donation to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul.

In January your donations provided 62 daily food deliveries helping 193 family members, and provided 18 families with utility assistance, helping 53 family members. Thank you!
