Pastor's Corner

St. Dominic, the Joyful Friar

St. Dominic was born in Castille, Spain around 1170 to Blessed Jane d' Aza and Felix de Guzman. He had two older brothers, Anthony and Blessed Mannes, who were already preparing for the priesthood when he was born. Ordinarily, he would have been trained to be a soldier like his father, but his mother had other plans. He showed great aptitude for study and pastoral zeal even in his youth. Shortly after his ordination to the priesthood he was recruited to be a canon (a group of diocesan priests who lived in community like religious) in the city of Osma.

In 1203, Bishop Diego of Osma took St. Dominic with him on a journey to Denmark. It turned out to be a watershed journey. They saw the Church in Toulouse, France in turmoil from erroneous teaching and preaching of the Christian message. They also saw the Church's ministers either unable to cope with the errors or living and teaching those same errors themselves!

Bishop Diego tried a novel approach on his second trip three years later: he put aside all of the trappings and finery of his status as a bishop and worked a simple street preacher. He sent his entourage home to Osma but kept St. Dominic with him. Together, they sought to teach solid, well-argued Catholic doctrine while begging and otherwise imitating the evangelical, austere life of the apostles described in Luke 10. He established a convent of nine women in Prouille to take part in the mission by community life, penance and prayer. They also taught the daughters of the nobility. (That monastery of nuns still exists today.)

St. Dominic continued the task after Bishop Diego died. St. Dominic did not abandon his mission, despite the storm around him. He and his sixteen followers shared a vision and an ardent desire to preach Jesus Christ. His company was charged by the bishop of Toulouse to assist him in his role as teacher and preacher. This was a novelty, because at that time only bishops preached. The newly elected Pope Honorius III gave St. Dominic the recognition he wanted on December 21, 1216, not only of his preaching band, but also of the cloistered women in Prouille and the associations of laity he organized throughout southern France. The Order of Preachers was born.

St. Dominic's vision was nothing short of revolutionary. First, he set up a democracy in a time when the only recognized form of government was monarchy. Second, priests were given the prerogative to preach and to do so universally. Third, he included women and the laity in the mission of preaching and teaching. Think about it for a moment: any one of these is incredible, but all three! Within a century of St. Dominic's death in 1221, there were over 30,000 friars throughout Europe and the frontiers of the known world, established and growing numbers of nuns' monasteries and many associations of laity.

While founding the Order, St. Dominic was very aware of his status as the pater familias and used his magnetic personality to the fullest. He always strove to encourage those around him by setting a good example for them, not just by his exemplary preaching. He was warm and affectionate to all and a cheerful companion. He was persistent in encouraging the members of his little flock never to settle for less than the demanding standards they had set for themselves. He prayed for them unceasingly. He told his brothers on his deathbed, "I will be of more use to you in heaven than on earth."

St. Dominic's genius was his ability to bring out what is true, good and beautiful in those around him by his example and his preaching, and then to send them out to do the same for others. He shows us that happiness and holiness are more contagious than cynicism and evil. He continues to call us to be a light in the shadow of the death, a haven of peace where the effects of sin are rife and salt to accentuate the essential goodness of all God's creation.

A significant goal learned from this pandemic is that we must implement a curriculum that first honors parents as the first and proper teachers to their children in matters of faith and morality. Second, we must implement a curriculum that is scalable between a distance and gathered program that prioritizes the safety of your children while providing the best quality curriculum available.

A New Way to Think About Religious Education

St. Dominic's is excited to introduce

A Family of Faith as that model of learning to help develop strong Catholic families. A Family of Faith follows a four-year cycle: one pillar of the Catechism is covered per year from September through May. Parents are given a detailed picture of authentic and vibrant Catholic family life, the tools to implement this life in their home, and age-appropriate readings, games, crafts, and other activities to help them deepen among their children a love for Christ and His Church. Each year is self-contained, and so families may join at any time in the cycle. After four years, families will have been guided through the entirety of the Catechism and will have developed a broad understanding of the Church's teachings. Families then cycle through the program again in order to deepen their knowledge and develop the habits needed for life-long spiritual growth.

August 8, 2021 - The Solemnity of St. Dominic

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

Isaiah 52:7-10

A reading from the Book of the prophet Isaiah:

How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of the one bringing good news, Announcing peace, bearing good news, announcing salvation, saying to Zion, "Your God is King!" Listen! Your sentinels raise a cry, together they shout for joy, For they see directly, before their eyes, the LORD's return to Zion. Break out together in song, O ruins of Jerusalem! For the LORD has comforted his people, has redeemed Jerusalem. The LORD has bared his holy arm in the sight of all the nations; All the ends of the earth can see the salvation of our God. The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalms 96:1-2, 2-3, 7-8, 9-10

Proclaim his marvelous deeds to all the nations.

Sing to the Lord a new song; sing to the Lord, all you lands. Sing to the Lord; bless his name.

Announce his salvation, day after day. Tell his glory among the nations; among all peoples, his wondrous deeds.

Give to the Lord, you families of nations, give to the Lord glory and praise; give to the Lord the glory due his name!

Say among the nations: The Lord is King. He has made the world firm, not to be moved; he governs the peoples with equity.

2 Timothy 4:1-8

A reading from the second Letter of Saint Paul to Timothy

Beloved: I charge you in the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who will judge the living and the dead, and by his appearing and his kingly power: proclaim the word; be persistent whether it is convenient or inconvenient; convince, reprimand, encourage through all patience and teaching. For the time will come when people will not tolerate sound doctrine but, following their own desires and insatiable curiosity, will accumulate teachers and will stop listening to the truth and will be diverted to myths. But you, be self-possessed in all circumstances; put up with hardship; perform the work of an evangelist; fulfill your ministry. For I am already being poured out like a libation, and the time of my departure is at hand. I have competed well; I have finished the race; I have kept the faith. From now on the crown of righteousness awaits me, which the Lord, the just judge, will award to me on that day, and not only to me, but to all who have longed for his appearance. The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Matthew 5:13-19

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

Jesus said to his disciples: "You are the salt of the earth. But if salt loses its taste, with what can it be seasoned? It is no longer good for anything but to be thrown out and trampled underfoot. You are the light of the world. A city set on a mountain cannot be hidden. Nor do they light a lamp and then put it under a bushel basket; it is set on a lampstand, where it gives light to all in the house. Just so, your light must shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your heavenly Father. Do not think that I have come to abolish the law or the prophets. I have come not to abolish but to fulfill. Amen, I say to you, until heaven and earth pass away, not the smallest letter or the smallest part of a letter will pass from the law, until all things have taken place. Therefore, whoever breaks one of the least of these commandments and teaches others to do so will be called least in the Kingdom of heaven. But whoever obeys and teaches these commandments will be called greatest in the Kingdom of heaven."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ

Profession of Faith

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayer for the Sick during the Pandemic

O God, our refuge in trials, our strength in sickness, our comfort in sorrow, spare your people, we pray, and hear our prayers for all who are sick: Grant them, we implore you, your merciful help, so that, with their health restored, they may give you thanks in the midst of the Church.

Your Only-Begotten Son took on our human nature and bore our infirmities; protect and strengthen also we pray, nurses, doctors, first responders, and all others on the front line of this pandemic, who put themselves in harm's way to serve the needs of others.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.
