New Year's Resolutions

According to a study done in 2016, of the 41% of Americans who make New Year's resolutions, by the end of the year only 9% feel they were successful in keeping them. This is time of year where many people decide to take on a resolution to lose weight, exercise, save money, quit a habit, etc. I'm going to take the opportunity to encourage you to pick up (maybe dust off) and read Sacred Scripture daily. Read it for about 5 or 10 minutes a day. You can start with the daily Mass readings or your favorite Gospel. There are many kinds of "Read the Bible in 356 days" plans online that you can start. Bring the Bible with you to the Adoration chapel, download an audiobook version and listen to it on your commute, or read the readings in your Magnificat before arriving to the church for daily Mass. Over the span of weeks and months, you will find that reading Scripture fuels the fire of divine love in the soul for God, as exemplified in the lives of the saints.

It is one thing to have the resolve to read Scripture every day, but there needs to be a certain attitude that accompanies the determination. In his book, Saint Thomas Aquinas, Vol. 1, The Person and His Work, fr. Jean-Pierre Torrell, O.P., the great French Dominican and theologian, reflects on Thomas's life and works. He goes into great detail on the overlooked but profound text, Thomas's Catechetical Instructions. In it, St. Thomas elucidates the necessary attitude one needs to take when approaching the Word of God. "St. Thomas enumerates five attitudes toward the Word of God. 1) We must first listen willingly to it: "We ought to hear the Word of God gladly; for such is a sign that we love God." 2) We must next believe it. "We ought also to believe the word of God whereby the Word of God dwells in us, who is Christ: "That Christ may dwell by faith in your hearts." 3) We must also meditate on it constantly, "we should meditate often upon this; for otherwise we will not be benefited to the extent that such meditation is a great help against sin." 4) We must further communicate it to others by "advising, preaching and inflaming their hearts...Preach the word; be it in season, out of season; reprove, entreat, rebuke in all patience and doctrine...let the word of Christ dwell in you abundantly in all wisdom, teaching and admonishing one another." 5) We must finally complete it, "we ought to put the word of God into practice: by being, as Saint James wrote, "Be doers of the word and not hearers only, deceiving only yourselves." St. Thomas finishes his reflection on these attitudes and explains that the Blessed Mother observed these attitudes perfectly during the life of Christ.

"First, she heard what was said to her: "The Holy Spirit will come upon you." Then she gave her consent through faith: "Behold, I am the handmaid of the Lord." And she also received and carried the Word in her womb. Then she brought forth the Word of God and, finally, she nourished and cared for Him."

Through the intercession of Mary, the Mother of God, we ask God to open our minds and souls to receive Christ, both in Word and Sacrament, as we enter into this new year.

Prayer for Christian Unity on January 18, 2022

You are invited to a Livestream Special Event on Tuesday, January 18, 2022 from 3:00-6:30 p.m. during the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity. The theme is: We have seen his star in the East and have come to pay homage to him (cf. Matthew 2:2). This Special Event is sponsored by the North State Ecumenical Conference (NSEC), which was established in 1968 and is comprised of Christian faiths in the Greater Sacramento Area. The Special Event will consist of three key segments:

- ◆ Panel Discussion (3:00 – 4:15 p.m.) with several Christian faith leaders, who will address the topic of: Uniting as Christians, as we pay homage to Christ.
- ◆ Featured Speaker (4:30 – 5:00 p.m.) will be Rev. Rola Al Ashkar of Westminster Presbyterian Church, and her topic is: The gift of the star is a sign of hope during today's troubled times.
- ◆ Worship Prayer Service (5:15 – 6:30 p.m.) led by 16 Christian faith leaders, with the sermon delivered by Rev. Aidan Rontani of the Episcopal Church.

This Special Event will be available through the following Livestream link:

January 16, 2022 - The Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

Isaiah 62:1-5

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah:

For Zion's sake I will not be silent, for Jerusalem's sake I will not be quiet, until her vindication shines forth like the dawn and her victory like a burning torch. Nations shall behold your vindication, and all the kings your glory; you shall be called by a new name pronounced by the mouth of the LORD. You shall be a glorious crown in the hand of the LORD, a royal diadem held by your God. No more shall people call you "Forsaken," or your land "Desolate," but you shall be called "My Delight," and your land "Espoused." For the LORD delights in you and makes your land his spouse. As a young man marries a virgin, your Builder shall marry you; and as a bridegroom rejoices in his bride so shall your God rejoice in you. The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God

Psalm 96:1-2, 2-3, 7-8, 9-10

Proclaim to all the nations, the marvelous deeds of the Lord!

Sing to the Lord a new song.

Sing to the Lord all you lands! Sing to the Lord with all your heart, and bless God's name!

Announce salvation day by day, God's glory throughout the earth! Among all the people in every land, God's wondrous deeds!

Give to the Lord, you nations, praise to the Lord of all! Sing glory and praise and sing to the name, above all names!

Worship the Lord, and tremble, proclaim the one who reigns! Say to the nations: "The Lord is King," who rules with justice!

1 Corinthians 12:4-11

A reading from the first Letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians

Brothers and sisters: There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone. To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit. To one is given through the Spirit the expression of wisdom; to another, the expression of knowledge according to the same Spirit; to another, faith by the same Spirit; to another, gifts of healing by the one Spirit; to another, mighty deeds; to another, prophecy; to another, discernment of spirits; to another, varieties of tongues; to another, interpretation of tongues. But one and the same Spirit produces all of these, distributing them individually to each person as he wishes.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

John 2:1-11

+ A reading from the holy Gospel according to John:

There was a wedding at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples were also invited to the wedding. When the wine ran short, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." And Jesus said to her, "Woman, how does your concern affect me? My hour has not yet come." His mother said to the servers, "Do whatever he tells you." Now there were six stone water jars there for Jewish ceremonial washings, each holding twenty to thirty gallons. Jesus told them, "Fill the jars with water." So they filled them to the brim. Then he told them, "Draw some out now and take it to the headwaiter." So they took it. And when the headwaiter tasted the water that had become wine, without knowing where it came from -although the servers who had drawn the water knew-, the headwaiter called the bridegroom and said to him, "Everyone serves good wine first, and then when people have drunk freely, an inferior one; but you have kept the good wine until now." Jesus did this as the beginning of his signs at Cana in Galilee and so revealed his glory, and his disciples began to believe in him. The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ
