Pastor's Corner

When I was a Duck

This is the first of two weekends this month that I will be away. You know if you watch my Monday Musings that I will be at St. Thomas More Catholic Newman Center in Eugene, Oregon. It has a special place in my heart: it was the first community I served as pastor. I was in my seventh year of priesthood and had served in two of the largest parishes in the Province (St. Dominic's, Eagle Rock and Holy Rosary, Antioch) and two prominent campus ministries (Occidental College and Stanford University). I had also lost both of my parents in my first three years of priesthood: my father to ALS a few weeks after my first anniversary of priesthood and my mother just under two years later to cancer.

Back around this time in 2005, I was happily in the midst of my third year at Stanford University; I had gotten over being intimidated serving at such a prestigious university and learned that I could be an excellent priest for those smart, talented, and driven students from all over the world. You could say I had finally hit my stride as a priest. Stanford was also the first assignment where I didn't have to worry about the health of one or both of my parents; and remember, I'm an only child.

The Dominican community in Menlo Park at the time, prior to our accepting St. Raymond's, was Vallejo boy, Fr. Patrick LaBelle, me, and an older friar serving as chaplain to our cloistered nuns. The three of us had talked about how I could possibly be a good candidate for Eugene, but I didn't think those conversations got past our dinner table. I will never forget the call from the Provincial asking me if I would go to Eugene as pastor: I was having a lunch of sangria and tapas on my day off. I was surprised, honored, and felt completely unprepared, but I said "yes."

Like the first year of priesthood, the first year of being a pastor has a steep learning curve. Fortunately, I had an energetic congregation of students and permanent community, a very competent lay staff, and a dedicated, hard working, newly ordained parochial vicar who all did their part in making the transition a smooth one for me. (In that year, I took a workshop for new pastors from up and down the West coast, one of the other young pastors was a Sacramento diocesan priest; we had lost touch after that workshop and reconnected when I moved to Benicia!) I was feeling pretty good about my first year as it was coming to a close and looking forward to the second year, when everything would not be "first." Then came a complete surprise that brought my 11-month pastorate in Eugene to an abrupt end: I was elected prior of Holy Rosary Priory in Portland.

February 6, 2022 - The Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

Isaiah 6:1-2a, 3-8

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah:

In the year King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord seated on a high and lofty throne, with the train of his garment filling the temple. Seraphim were stationed above. They cried one to the other, "Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of hosts! All the earth is filled with his glory!" At the sound of that cry, the frame of the door shook and the house was filled with smoke. Then I said, "Woe is me, I am doomed! For I am a man of unclean lips, living among a people of unclean lips; yet my eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts!" Then one of the seraphim flew to me, holding an ember that he had taken with tongs from the altar. He touched my mouth with it, and said, "See, now that this has touched your lips, your wickedness is removed, your sin purged." Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Whom shall I send? Who will go for us?" "Here I am," I said; "send me!"

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God

Psalms 138:1-2, 2-3, 4-5, 7-8

In the sight of the angels, I will sing your praises, Lord.

I will give thanks to you, O Lord, with all my heart, for you have heard the words of my mouth; in the presence of the angels I will sing your praise; I will worship at your holy temple and give thanks to your name.

Because of your kindness and your truth; for you have made great above all things your name and your promise. When I called you answered me; you built up strength within me.

All the kings of the earth shall give thanks to you, O Lord, when they hear the words of your mouth; and they shall sing of the ways of the Lord: "Great is the glory of the Lord."

Your right hand saves me. The Lord will complete what he has done for me; your kindness, O Lord, endures forever; forsake not the work of your hands.

1 Corinthians 15:1-11

A reading from the first Letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians:

I am reminding you, brothers and sisters, of the gospel I preached to you, which you indeed received and in which you also stand. Through it you are also being saved, if you hold fast to the word I preached to you, unless you believed in vain. For I handed on to you as of first importance what I also received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the Scriptures; that he was buried; that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures; that he appeared to Cephas, then to the Twelve. After that, he appeared to more than five hundred brothers at once, most of whom are still living, though some have fallen asleep. After that he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. Last of all, as to one born abnormally, he appeared to me. For I am the least of the apostles, not fit to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace to me has not been ineffective. Indeed, I have toiled harder than all of them; not I, however, but the grace of God that is with me. Therefore, whether it be I or they, so we preach and so you believed. The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Luke 5:1-11

+ A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke:

While the crowd was pressing in on Jesus and listening to the word of God, he was standing by the Lake of Gennesaret. He saw two boats there alongside the lake; the fishermen had disembarked and were washing their nets. Getting into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, he asked him to put out a short distance from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat. After he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Put out into deep water and lower your nets for a catch." Simon said in reply, "Master, we have worked hard all night and have caught nothing, but at your command I will lower the nets." When they had done this, they caught a great number of fish and their nets were tearing. They signaled to their partners in the other boat to come to help them. They came and filled both boats so that the boats were in danger of sinking.

February 6, 2022 - Continued

When Simon Peter saw this, he fell at the knees of Jesus and said, "Depart from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man." For astonishment at the catch of fish they had made seized him and all those with him, and likewise James and John, the sons of Zebedee, who were partners of Simon. Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching men." When they brought their boats to the shore, they left everything and followed him. The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ

Profession of Faith

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayer for the Sick during the Pandemic

O God, our refuge in trials, our strength in sickness, our comfort in sorrow, spare your people, we pray, and hear our prayers for all who are sick: Grant them, we implore you, your merciful help, so that, with their health restored, they may give you thanks in the midst of the Church.

Your Only-Begotten Son took on our human nature and bore our infirmities; protect and strengthen also we pray, nurses, doctors, first responders, and all others on the front line of this pandemic, who put themselves in harm's way to serve the needs of others.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever.
