Pastor's Corner

The Darker Side of June

Last week, I shared with you some big family dates in May and June, including Nana's birthday, my uncle's ordination to the priesthood, my birthday, my mom and uncle's birthday, and my ordination to the priesthood, all within a 5-week span between May 15 and June 21.

It is also a heavy time for me. The anniversary of my father's death is June 20, 1999 (a day before my mother and uncle's birthday), which was also Father's Day that year. My father had ALS, or Lou Gehrig's Disease, for over a decade. It was a nuisance for most of that time; he only became debilitated the last few years of his life. He was diagnosed at 55, about 3 months after his own father died of the same disease. (Ironically, my two grandfathers died four days apart from each other in my senior year of high school.)

There are two amazing, grace-filling things about my father's illness. The first is that that he lived to see me ordained at all, much less my first anniversary! ALS' progression is anything but predictable: it strikes everyone differently both in effects and scale of time. (I had a high school classmate who died of ALS shortly before Christmas; he had the disease about 5 years. My paternal grandfather died 18 months after he was diagnosed.) There were periods of deterioration when we thought, "Well, that's it!" but it wasn't. He didn't rally, but he would simply stop getting worse for a time. My father was fortunate in that he died before he was completely bed-ridden and unable to speak or eat.

As I've told you, my parents divorced when I was eight. I lived with my mom, but I had regular visits with my dad on weekends, school breaks, summertime, etc. My dad was always very protective of his time with me; it never felt like enough to him. In my first year of priesthood, my mother was diagnosed with cancer. I was assigned to St. Dominic's in Eagle Rock (Los Angeles). All of a sudden, I had no idea how I, an only child, was going to manage two sick parents, each living in a different place and me living in a third. In the midst of those chaotic days, my father had his finest, most heroic moment: the second amazing moment. Shortly after learning of mom's diagnosis, he took my hand in his, looked me straight in the eye (two things he never did!), and said, "Son, take care of your mother. Don't worry about me." In that moment, I felt the enormity of the sacrifice those few words encompassed: the time he spent with me, one of the things he treasured most in his life, so I would be free to care for his wife of 22 years and his ex-wife of 21 years. I was stunned and amazed and I was never prouder of my father than that moment. The happy irony was that because of my mom's illness, I was able to visit with my dad a lot in what turned out to be the last months of his life.

For the Beauty of the Earth: Experiencing the Glory of God in the Wonders of the 49th State was written as a "love letter" to Alaska. Using the Canticle of the Three Young Men from Daniel 3 as his organizing principle, Fr. Bart Hutcherson, OP, has arranged more than 350 of his own photographs, interspersed with reflections, scripture, hymns, psalms, and poetry, into a visual sermon declaring the Glory of God. He hopes that his photos will inspire his readers as much as Alaska has inspired him. The book is now available for order on Fr. Bart's website at www.FrBart.com/Alaska-Book.html.

June 12, 2022 - The Most Holy Trinity

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

Proverbs 8:22-31

A reading from the Book of Proverbs

Thus says the wisdom of God:
"The LORD possessed me, the beginning of his ways, the forerunner of his prodigies of long ago; from of old I was poured forth, at the first, before the earth. When there were no depths I was brought forth, when there were no fountains or springs of water; before the mountains were settled into place, before the hills, I was brought forth; while as yet the earth and fields were not made, nor the first clods of the world.
"When the Lord established the heavens I was there, when he marked out the vault over the face of the deep; when he made firm the skies above, when he fixed fast the foundations of the earth; when he set for the sea its limit, so that the waters should not transgress his command; then was I beside him as his craftsman, and I was his delight day by day, playing before him all the while, playing on the surface of his earth; and I found delight in the human race."

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God

Psalms 8:4-5, 6-7, 8-9

O Lord, our God, how wonderful your name in all the earth!

When I behold your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon & the stars which you set in place - what is man that you should be mindful of him, or the son of man that you should care for him?

You have made him little less than the angels, & crowned him with glory & honor. You have given him rule over the works of your hands, putting all things under his feet.

All sheep & oxen, yes, & the beasts of the field, the birds of the air, the fishes of the sea, & whatever swims the path of the seas.

Romans 5:1-5

A reading from the Letter of St. Paul to the Romans:

Brothers and sisters: Therefore, since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have gained access by faith to this grace in which we stand, and we boast in hope of the glory of God. Not only that, but we even boast of our afflictions, knowing that affliction produces endurance, and endurance, proven character, and proven character, hope, and hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us. The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

John 16:12-15

+ A reading from the holy Gospel according to John:

Jesus said to his disciples: "I have much more to tell you, but you cannot bear it now. But when he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you to all truth. He will not speak on his own, but he will speak what he hears, and will declare to you the things that are coming. He will glorify me, because he will take from what is mine and declare it to you. Everything that the Father has is mine; for this reason I told you that he will take from what is mine and declare it to you."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ

Profession of Faith

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayer for the Sick during the Pandemic

O God, our refuge in trials, our strength in sickness, our comfort in sorrow, spare your people, we pray, and hear our prayers for all who are sick: Grant them, we implore you, your merciful help, so that, with their health restored, they may give you thanks in the midst of the Church.

Your Only-Begotten Son took on our human nature and bore our infirmities; protect and strengthen also we pray, nurses, doctors, first responders, and all others on the front line of this pandemic, who put themselves in harm's way to serve the needs of others.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever.
