Pastor's Corner

Holy Father St. Dominic

There is an old joke: "If you've met one Jesuit, you've met them all. If you've met one Dominican, you've met...one Dominican." I think this parish can attest to the truth of this: you have experienced lots of friars with a wide range of personalities and temperaments over the years. (I mean really, just think about the three wonderful Residency student brothers we have had since I have been here.) Like the Church herself, the Dominican Order is a big tent, with room for lots of different kinds of people. While I can't say this was directly intended by St. Dominic, it certainly seems he was very open to it.

One of the greatest contrasts between us and our revered cousins, the Franciscans, is the place the founder plays in the lives of the two orders. For the Franciscan family, St. Francis is very much front and center of their consciousness. Images of him abound. For Dominicans, St. Dominic is in the background. You will never find a statue of St. Dominic in a Dominican, or any other, backyard. (Fr. David has tried: he found a small statue of a dog that he put at the feet of St. Francis statue! He occasionally threatens to paint St. Francis' habit black and white.) At the risk of oversimplifying, to be a good Franciscan, one must imitate St. Francis; to be a good Dominican, one follows the structures St. Dominic gave us.

This speaks eloquently of the beauty and flexibility of the Order's governing structures. The Order can respond to the changing needs of the Church, the brethren, and the world over time. The Constitutions of the Order today are both very similar and very different than they were in the 13th, 15th, 17th, and 19th centuries. There is a story (legend?) in the early days of the two Orders that both St. Dominic and St. Francis wanted to make their respective orders more like the other, but both communities rejected those desires of the founders!

After founding the Order, St. Dominic was very aware of his role as the pater familias and used his magnetic personality to the fullest. (Note that he died only five years after the Order was founded!) He always strove to encourage those around him by setting a good example for them, not just by his exemplary preaching. He prayed for them unceasingly. He told his brothers on his deathbed, "I will be of more use to you in heaven than on earth." He was warm and affectionate to all and a cheerful companion. He was persistent in encouraging the members of his little flock never to settle for less than the demanding standards they had set for themselves.

May our Holy Father St. Dominic's witness continue to inspire us as a parish community and may he continue to pray for us to be vibrant, joyful disciples of Jesus. Happy feast day!

August 7, 2022 - The Solemnity of St. Dominic

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

Isaiah 52:7-10

A reading from the Book of the prophet Isaiah:

How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of the one bringing good news, Announcing peace, bearing good news, announcing salvation, saying to Zion, "Your God is King!" Listen! Your sentinels raise a cry, together they shout for joy, For they see directly, before their eyes, the LORD's return to Zion. Break out together in song, O ruins of Jerusalem! For the LORD has comforted his people, has redeemed Jerusalem. The LORD has bared his holy arm in the sight of all the nations; All the ends of the earth can see the salvation of our God. The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalms 96:1-2, 2-3, 7-8, 9-10

Proclaim his marvelous deeds to all the nations.

Sing to the Lord a new song; sing to the Lord, all you lands. Sing to the Lord; bless his name.

Announce his salvation, day after day. Tell his glory among the nations; among all peoples, his wondrous deeds.

Give to the Lord, you families of nations, give to the Lord glory and praise; give to the Lord the glory due his name!

Say among the nations: The Lord is King. He has made the world firm, not to be moved; he governs the peoples with equity.

2 Timothy 4:1-8

A reading from the second Letter of Saint Paul to Timothy

Beloved: I charge you in the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who will judge the living and the dead, and by his appearing and his kingly power: proclaim the word; be persistent whether it is convenient or inconvenient; convince, reprimand, encourage through all patience and teaching. For the time will come when people will not tolerate sound doctrine but, following their own desires and insatiable curiosity, will accumulate teachers and will stop listening to the truth and will be diverted to myths. But you, be self-possessed in all circumstances; put up with hardship; perform the work of an evangelist; fulfill your ministry. For I am already being poured out like a libation, and the time of my departure is at hand. I have competed well; I have finished the race; I have kept the faith. From now on the crown of righteousness awaits me, which the Lord, the just judge, will award to me on that day, and not only to me, but to all who have longed for his appearance. The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Like 10:1-9

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke:

At that time the Lord appointed seventy-two others whom he sent ahead of him in pairs to every town and place he intended to visit. He said to them, "The harvest is abundant but the laborers are few; so ask the master of the harvest to send out laborers for his harvest. Go on your way; behold, I am sending you like lambs among wolves. Carry no money bag, no sack, no sandals; and greet no one along the way. Into whatever house you enter, first say, 'Peace to this household.' If a peaceful person lives there, your peace will rest on him; but if not, it will return to you. Stay in the same house and eat and drink what is offered to you, for the laborer deserves his payment. Do not move about from one house to another. Whatever town you enter and they welcome you, eat what is set before you, cure the sick in it and say to them, 'The kingdom of God is at hand for you.' The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ

Profession of Faith

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayer for the Sick during the Pandemic

O God, our refuge in trials, our strength in sickness, our comfort in sorrow, spare your people, we pray, and hear our prayers for all who are sick: Grant them, we implore you, your merciful help, so that, with their health restored, they may give you thanks in the midst of the Church.

Your Only-Begotten Son took on our human nature and bore our infirmities; protect and strengthen also we pray, nurses, doctors, first responders, and all others on the front line of this pandemic, who put themselves in harm's way to serve the needs of others.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.
