Future Pastor's Corner

Visiting you all at St. Dominic's last weekend was such a delight. On the flight back to Anchorage, my mind was racing with ideas for how we can all work together to continue to bring the truth and love of Christ to Benicia and its surrounding region. The parish is full of faithful, dedicated parishioners, and I cannot wait until July 1st when I get to start working with all of you, fulltime. The members of the parish councils and volunteer teams at St Dominic's are truly first-rate – generous and radiant with Christian kindness. The students at St. Dominic's School were joyful and welcoming, and the administrators were inspiring. I am eager to be a support to everybody involved in the various facets of this parish that make it such a stellar place to worship and grow in Christian knowledge and charity.

Please pray for me as I conclude my ministry here in Anchorage at Holy Family Old Cathedral. I will miss the people here in Alaska, but as you may have noticed, a nice thing about Dominican parishes is that even though we brothers move on to other assignments, we frequently have occasions for returning to visit. It's never totally goodbye with us! During the next few months, I will be praying for you and for the mission I am sure we all share of continuing to make St. Dominic's a place where we can all grow in our faith so that we can work together as an instrument of Our Lord's mercy and his peace. See you on July 1st!
