Pastor's Corner

As many of you know, some of the other Dominican brothers and I teach the kids in the parish school classrooms once per week. We each take responsibility for three grades, and this year, the grades I will teach are kindergarten, third-grade, and seventh-grade. This past week I began meeting with the kids. Teaching all three classes was a blast, although the group I feel most urgent about is seventh-grade because in one more year after this one, they will be off to the big, bad world of high school. Admittedly, for my introductory session with the seven-graders, the kids and I spent a lot of time just commiserating about that dumpster fire of a Niners game last Sunday. I really do, however, plan to discuss more exalted subject matter with the kids as the year progresses. A key goal is to help them go deeper in their faith and to take more ownership of it in an environment in which they can be encouraged, not only by their pastor and teachers, but also by their peers. After they leave Saint Dominic's, I want them to have fun in high school, but with a sense of self-worth that is rooted in their dignity as having been created by God and being loved by him. My hope is that the truth of that dignity they all possess will lead them to put God at the center of their lives by integrating consideration of him into everything they do. If that happens, they will certainly be ahead of where I was spiritually in high school. I had a reasonably enjoyable time during those years, but my faith was definitely not at the center of my life. In hindsight, having become a much more faithful Catholic as an adult, it occurs to me that had I been stronger in my faith as an adolescent, not only would I have been a holier teenager, I probably would have had a better time in high school. High school is a time when many of us struggle with a need for the vain approval of our peers. To be truly strong in one's faith, however, is to draw one's sense of confidence from God's love and seeking to do his will, rather than drawing self-esteem from the vain approval of one's peers. I want the kids to know that being hooked on superficial validation from others makes for a soul that is crippled by pride. It also leads to an anxious interior life because if our sense of having a good self-image relies on vain validation from others, that means our sense of confidence will be in the hands of those other people. An authentically good self-image, by comparison, is one that is in our own grasp, all the while being empowered and perfected by the grace of our loving Creator. The freer we are from desire for the vain approval of others, the freer we are to be the people God made us to be. And that is what enables us to be as happy as we can be. So, am I naïve to envision such ideas resonating with seventh and eighth graders? Maybe yes, and maybe no, but we can at least plant the seeds.

DOMINICAN STUDENT APPEAL

THANK YOU!
There is still time!

THANK YOU to all those who responded to our recent Rosary Sunday: Dominican Student Appeal.

If you haven't been able to reply yet, you still have a chance to help the 41 young men currently in formation to become your future Dominican priests and religious brothers.

Your support of the appeal truly makes a difference in the lives of the friars. Without your help, and God's grace, their vocations would not be possible, especially since we do not receive support from the diocese for the formation of our brethren.

Please give online at www.opwest.org/rs, use a Rosary Sunday envelope from the pew, or mail a gift to: Western Dominican Province, 5877 Birch Court, Oakland, CA 94618.

The Dominican Student Brothers thank you for your generosity!

MUSIC NOTES : OCTOBER 22, 2023

For 11:00 Mass:

Organ Prelude: Improvisation from Suite Medievale
by Jean Langlais.

Jean Langlais (15 February 1907 – 8 May 1991) was a French composer of modern classical music, organist, and improviser. It was as an organist that Langlais made his name, following in the footsteps of César Franck and Charles Tournemire as organiste titulaire at the Basilica of Sainte-Clotilde in Paris in 1945, a post in which he remained until 1988.

"Suite Medievale" is one of his most popular organ works, merging Gregorian chant with the spirit of French Gothic cathedrals built in medieval times.

Organ Postlude: Joyful Interlude in A by Colin Mawby

Colin Mawby (9 May 1936 – 24 November 2019) was an English organist, choral conductor and composer. From 1961 he was Master of Music at Westminster Cathedral, then from 1981 he was the choral director at Radio Telefís Éireann. He composed masses dedicated to specific choirs, including in Germany. He was awarded Knighthood of the Order of St. Gregory in 2006.

11:00 a.m. only:

Choral Communion meditation:

Come Ye Sons of Art by Henry Purcell

Come Ye Sons of Art, Z.323, also known as Ode for Queen Mary's Birthday, is a musical composition by Henry Purcell, who was an English court composer at that time. It was written in 1694, and is one of a series of odes in honour of the birthday of Queen Mary II of England. The text of the ode is full of gratitude to God for the life of Queen Mary.

*"Blessed are those who mourn:
they shall be comforted."*

40 DAYS FOR LIFE™

Vallejo/Benicia/American Canyon CA – Beginning September 27th thru November 5th 2023, the highly successful 40 Days for Life campaign returns to Vallejo with 40 days of prayer and fasting, peaceful vigil and community outreach. St. Dominic's Parish will be responsible for filling the hours of 6am to 6pm beginning on the first Wednesday of the vigil September 27th. Please consider giving 1 hour per week praying in the public right of way in front of Planned Parenthood located at 303 Sacramento St. Vallejo, CA. You can sign up online at <https://www.40daysforlife.com/en/vallejo>. You can set up your own login credentials and sign up for any hour of any day during the vigil. Please contact me if you have any questions.

We know 40 Days for Life has made a difference in Vallejo/Benicia & American Canyon. Our volunteers have made extraordinary sacrifices to expose the abortion industry and to protect children and their mothers from abortion." Here are just a few of the positive results of previous Vallejo campaign(s).

- Nine lives save from abortion that we know of
- Five Catholic Churches are working together
- Approximately 50 volunteers dedicated themselves as prayer warriors & few of them pray at the clinic every Wednesday, Thursday & Friday all year round, rain or shine.

40 Days for Life is a peaceful, highly-focused, non-denominational initiative that focuses on 40 days of prayer and fasting, peaceful vigil at abortion facilities, and grassroots educational outreach. The 40-day time frame is drawn from examples throughout Biblical history. All prayer vigil participants are requested to pray for peace, pledging to conduct themselves in a Christ-like manner at all times.
