Pastor's Corner

Last Sunday, I cautioned against allowing Advent to become consumed by the escapism of tree lights, hot cocoa, and Bing Crosby. Reflecting on stories connected to good old Saint Nick (the true one, that is), however, is a helpful way of keeping things real during this time of year.

We just commemorated him at mass this past Wednesday. While the jolly, white-bearded fellow with a belly like a bowl full of jelly is associated with magic reindeer and a sack full of the latest toys, stories about the real Saint Nicholas associate him with some rather dark realities during the late Third and early Fourth Centuries. One of those dark realities involved the spiritual contagion of heresy in his part of the world and beyond. He was bishop of Myra, a small town in what is now the southwest region of Turkey. And as a good shepherd of souls, he preached forcefully against Arianism, a theological error that held Jesus was not truly divine, but rather a kind of demigod. This amounted to denying that Jesus was truly God, which was a grave heresy. Saint Nick's time as bishop also saw the brutal persecution of Christians promulgated by the Roman Emperor Diocletian. Saint Nicholas was imprisoned as a result for refusing to renounce his faith. Later however, he was able to see the Roman Empire happily turn Christian by Emperor Constantine. On the topic of Santa's gift bag, this does have its roots in Saint Nicholas. But the story it comes from is not exactly the stuff of Claymation TV specials. Historically, people associated Saint Nick with gift-giving based on a tale about his generosity toward a father of three daughters who had fallen on hard times. Because the father had lost all of his money, his daughters were in danger of having to make their living through prostitution. In response, over the course of three nights, Saint Nicholas dropped three bags of gold into the man's house. This enabled his daughters to have dowries with which to get married. There is also the tale about Saint Nicholas bringing three schoolboys back to life after they were drugged, robbed, and murdered by an innkeeper. Again, many of the stories associated with Saint Nicholas involve some pretty gritty subject matter, but with joyful resolutions. As I said last Sunday, this season should be joyful, but in a way that is clear-eyed about the realities around us, not excessively escapist. This Advent, let us ask for Saint Nicholas's intercessory help in cultivating the right mindset. I have a hunch it will lead to making Christmas a whole lot more satisfying!

Advent is a time of spiritual preparation, but for church musicians, it is a time for preparation of music, as well. This year, St. Dominic's is inviting children ages 6 and up to join in a special Christmas Youth Choir to sing at the 4pm Christmas Vigil Mass! Under the guidance of Mrs. Maddie Burmann, children will sing familiar carols, some new music selections, and learn how to sing as part of an ensemble.

If you have any questions, please email Maddie Burmann at MadelineBurmann@gmail.com.

The Ty Family

Emil, Remilla, Ender, Rocky, Valencia, Maisey

Will light the Advent candle for the second week of Advent at the Sunday 9:00 a.m. Mass.

Our family enjoys spending the Advent season preparing our home and hearts together. We love being in each other's company while making handmade decorations and art, singing songs that remind us of Jesus, and reading books about the Saints. When we light a candle in our Advent wreath, we take a moment to give thanks and pray for our family, loved ones, and special intentions.

Help St. Vincent de Paul during the Holiday Season!

SVDP's Holiday Giving Tree

This year SVdP will be providing our neighbors with food vouchers instead of Christmas dinner boxes. Since we will not be asking our parishioners to prepare dinner boxes we hope you will consider an additional monetary donation to the SVdP to help with the food vouchers.

Thank you for your continued support!

The Giving Tree is up in the church. Please consider taking an ornament and buying the requested gift. Return the ornaments with the wrapped gift to the church before the afternoon of December 10th. All parishioners are welcome to help with delivery of gifts and food vouchers from 9:00 a.m.-12 noon on Saturday, December 16th in the Parish Hall.

Want more information?

Legacy & IRA Giving

You can remember St. Dominic's, Benicia in your estate plans through your will, retirement plan or other assets. Legacy gifts are used for capital projects that may otherwise not be possible and are never used for day to day expenses. You can even designate your gift to a specific fund (i.e. building fund).

If you own a traditional IRA and are over the age of 70 1/2, the IRS requires that you take yearly distributions (MRD's). But did you know you can designate the MRD to St. Dominic's Church and you don't have to pay taxes on the distribution? For more information, visit the IRS website or contact your tax or financial consultant.

MUSIC NOTES : December 8, 2023

Music notes for 7:30 and 11:00 a.m. Masses

Organ Prelude

Meditation (Communion) by the French composer and organist Jean Langlais is based on a chant Ubi Caritas, and is part of the cycle of liturgical organ pieces "Suite Medievale". Even though Langlais was blind, he was appointed organist at St. Clotilde Basilica in Paris, following in the footsteps of the great Cesar Franck.

Organ Postlude:

"The Joys awaiting" by Lyndell Leatherman
This arrangement by Leatherman combines two ancient hymns which anticipate the eternal rewards of heaven: "Jerusalem, my happy home" "Land of Rest", anonymous early American melody.
