Pastor's Corner

This past Monday was our nation's celebration of Martin Luther King Jr.'s birthday, and the mass's Gospel reading for that day seemed suitable for the holiday. The day's Gospel reading came from the Gospel of Mark, and in it, disciples of the Pharisees and of John the Baptist questioned Jesus as to why the disciples of Jesus did not fast while the disciples of the Pharisees and of John did fast. Jesus responded by revealing himself as the "Bridegroom" anticipated by the Old Testament worship practices – things like the old sacrifices, and certainly Old Testament fasting. Jesus conveyed that as long as the Bridegroom was with his disciples, it made no sense for them to fast. He did add, however, that a day would come when the Bridegroom would be taken away from his disciples, alluding to his Passion, and at that point, the disciples of Jesus would again fast. In explaining this, Jesus reminded the Jews that the Old Testament worship practices were meant to be a means to an end, that end being preparation for the coming of the Bridegroom and for the Salvation that would be accomplished by his sacrifice offered on the cross once and for all. Here is where I draw a parallel with last Monday's holiday.

In regard to the civil rights activism championed by Martin Luther King Jr., that was also intended to be a means to an end, not an end in and of itself. His activism aimed toward the realization of a dream in which human beings in the U.S. were judged based on the content of their character and not the color of their skin. To the extent that that dream has been realized, it was indeed fitting to celebrate that success on last Monday's holiday. However, many civil rights activists would surely want to remind us that Martin Luther King Jr.'s dream has not yet been realized to full perfection. There is still racism in our nation that needs to be defeated. Somewhat similar for all of us as Christians, while we do have Christ the Bridegroom dwelling within us through the Holy Spirit and through the Mass and our reception of the Eucharist, our union with Christ has not yet reached its full perfection. For those of us who persevere in faith, perfect union with Christ will become a reality beyond the grave after the Final Judgment when we have been totally purified of our sins. In the meantime, it is helpful for us to do penance on a regular basis as we, with joyful hope, look forward to the day when our union with the Bridegroom reaches its full perfection, at which point we will never have to fast again!

MUSIC NOTES : January 14, 2024

Organ Music for 7:30 and 11 a.m. Masses

Prelude: Invocation by Guilmant

Félix-Alexandre Guilmant (1837 – 1911) was a French organist and composer. He was the organist of La Trinité from 1871 until 1901. A noted pedagogue, performer, and improviser, Guilmant helped found the Schola Cantorum de Paris. He was appointed as Professor of Organ at the Paris Conservatoire in 1896. In 1871 he was appointed to play the organ regularly at la Trinité church in Paris, and this position, organiste titulaire, was one he held for 30 years. His Invocation invites us to a quiet prayer before the start of the Mass.

Postlude: Overture from the Firework music by Handel

George Frideric Handel composed "The Music for the Royal Fireworks" in 1749 under contract of George II of Great Britain. The work was very popular when first performed and following Handel's death, as well as to this day.

Legacy & IRA Giving

You can remember St. Dominic's, Benicia in your estate plans through your will, retirement plan or other assets. Legacy gifts are used for capital projects that may otherwise not be possible and are never used for day to day expenses. You can even designate your gift to a specific fund (i.e. building fund).

If you own a traditional IRA and are over the age of 70 1/2, the IRS requires that you take yearly distributions (MRD's). But did you know you can designate the MRD to St. Dominic's Church and you don't have to pay taxes on the distribution? For more information, visit the IRS website or contact your tax or financial consultant.
