Pastor's Corner

Well, with this Sunday is World Marriage Day in the Catholic Church! Marriage is a very important sacrament for us to promote and celebrate, because good, healthy marriages and families are so essential to a flourishing society. This is because an ideally thriving society has at its core the Church, and, as Catholics, we consider the family the, "Domestic Church." It is certainly true that families can help us to grow in holiness. Three weeks ago, I had the privilege of assisting at the wedding of a friend of mine in Sacramento at Sacred Heart Parish where I was a parishioner as a young adult. This friend was becoming a Lay Dominican around the time I was discerning my vocation with the Western Dominican Province. It was such a joy to serve at her wedding because for as long as I have known her, she has had a deep desire for the kind of shared community life that either vowed religious life or marriage and family can provide. She observed that living with people to whom one had to be accountable in a spiritual way was a valuable means to becoming more aware of one's character flaws and having an incentive to work with God's help to correct them. This is because when we live with people, they indeed very often do encourage us to smooth out the personal rough edges that can make us difficult people with whom to live. Additionally, living with people who annoy us sometimes can provide many occasions on which to die to ourselves and grow in patience, which can give us extra resilience that ends up being helpful in the face of future difficulties in life. Also, learning to love people through good times and bad enables us to love more deeply. Both married life, as well as community life bound by religious vows are meant to offer us these opportunities for character growth. This is not to say, of course, that all people in marriages and religious communities necessarily utilize these opportunities for growth. For example, it is not uncommon even for people who identify as devoutly Catholic to treat the unbreakable nature of the marriage bond as cause for license to slack off from being the best versions of themselves for their spouses. I always plead with the couples I prepare for marriage to commit to striving to be the best versions of themselves for their spouses every day when they wake up each morning. I remind them the grace of their sacramental marriage bond will be key to making this goal a reality. Many couples enter into marriage seeking a "happily-ever-after." The impulse to strive for this is good, so long as the ultimate happily-ever-after husbands, wives, and kids are reaching for is Heaven!

We know 40 Days for Life has made a difference in Vallejo/Benicia & American Canyon. Our volunteers have made extraordinary sacrifices to expose the abortion industry and to protect children and their mothers from abortion." Here are just a few of the positive results of the previous Vallejo campaign(s).

- Nine lives save from abortion that we know of
- Five Catholic Churches are working together
- Approximately 50 volunteers dedicated themselves as prayer warriors & few of them pray at the clinic every Wednesday, Thursday & Friday all year round, rain or shine.

40 Days for Life is a peaceful, highly-focused, non-denominational initiative that focuses on 40 days of prayer and fasting, peaceful vigil at abortion facilities, and grassroots educational outreach. The 40-day time frame is drawn from examples throughout Biblical history. All prayer vigil participants are requested to pray for peace, pledging to conduct themselves in a Christ-like manner at all times.

MUSIC NOTES

February 11, 2024

Organ music for 7:30 and 11:00 a.m. Masses:

Prelude: A Pleasant Thought by Florence Price
 To highlight contributions African American composers made to liturgical music, this piece by Florence Price brings a quiet mood of prayer and gratitude. Florence Price was a prolific composer who composed over 300 works and was the 1st black woman to have a symphony performed by a professional black symphony (Chicago Symphony Orchestra). Her works only now are beginning to be widely performed, and that includes her church music.

Postlude: Prince of Denmark's March by Jeremiah Clarke

The Prince of Denmark's March, commonly called the Trumpet Voluntary, was written around 1700 by the English composer Jeremiah Clarke, the first organist of the then newly-rebuilt St Paul's Cathedral. Popular as wedding music, the march was played during the wedding of Lady Diana Spencer and Prince Charles at St Paul's Cathedral in 1981.
